Section 38 Acts Repealed All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McCURDY. Mr. Speaker, this is what is called "The Housing Bill." Two years ago we had a similar bill for consideration before this House which was defeated by a very large majority. It seems to me that this is not the time to put further restrictions on houses for people to live in. The only purpose real purpose, that I can see to this bill at this time is to protect the real estate man that has houses to rent, and it is no protection to the man that has to secure a house to live in. I will read to you just one section which ought to be convincing to you, section 4 on page 9.

"Section 4 Buildings converted A building not a dwelling if thereafter converted to such use shall thereupon become subject to all provisions of this act relative to dwellings hereafter erected A dwelling of one class if hereafter converted to another class shall thereupon become subject to all the provisions of this act relative to the class to which it has been converted"

Gentlemen according to this bill it prevents you from converting a business block into a dwelling house thereby enabling those who are seeking homes to get protection from the wealth. Section 5, Mr. Speaker, I want to read that to you also.

"Section 5 Alterations and Change in Occupancy No dwelling hereafter erected shall at any time be altered so as to be in any violation of any provision of this act No dwelling erected prior to the passage of this act shall at any time be altered so as to be in violation of those provisions of this act applicable to such dwelling If any dwelling or any part thereof is occupied by more families than provided in this act or is erected altered or occupied contrary to law such dwelling shall be deemed an unlawful structure"

Now gentlemen according to the provisions of this bill it attempts to say how many people shall live in a building and you know that it is a physical impossibility to-day to house all the people of this country according to this statute, and I hope you will vote it down.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I heartily agree with the gentleman from Altoona that this is not the time to be inserting new and strange standards unless it is a question of absolute necessity. This bill was drafted in consequence of the slum districts that exist in some congested portions of the State. It was framed originally by the State Chamber of Commerce in consultation with architects from every corner of this State and under the direction of the State Department of Health. The idea is as the gentleman from Altoona said to establish and make standards throughout the State with particular reference to sanitation, light, air, and things of that kind which can do away with the bad conditions in congested districts. Now I say it is a good time to put a program of this kind in operation for two reasons. The first is that it is part of the Americanization program of the State; it is part of the program to educate our great mass of foreigners and to enable them to get such places to live in as will enable them to live in accordance with American conditions; and in the second place we are at a period when building has been standing still for several years and when the revival of building comes there will be a chance to establish these standards in a very large number of houses. It does not apply to existing houses unless they are changed or altered. As the gentleman has stated, it seems to me that when we consider the conditions in the new settlements that have sprung up during the last four or five years in the congested sections of the State that we ought to give them the relief that is necessary by establishing standards of this kind. That is the purpose of this act.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Edmonds, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EDMONDS. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I would like the gentleman to explain that if this is a good thing for the people in such beautiful towns as we have in Delaware, why it was not extended to the slums of Philadelphia.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, I would say that I am very sorry it cannot be extended there at the present time. The fact of the matter is the congestion is so great and the sizes of the lots are so small that it could not be put into operation there. We hope in a very short time, if you will give us a chance, to bring Philadelphia up to the plane of this act. We will try to make ourselves at least in harmony with the rest of the State.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to further interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. EDMONDS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I notice that this act in the first place included cities of the first class. Is that correct?

Mr. EDMONDS. That is correct, yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. And then it was amended by cutting them out?

Mr. EDMONDS. That was after a hearing which was had in Philadelphia.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Philadelphia didn't want it?

Mr. EDMONDS. Philadelphia couldn't use it.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RINN. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House. It is not my intention to take up your time at length in regard to this bill. This is the fourth time and at the fourth session that I introduced a bill for the abolition of grade crossings. The first bill that I introduced was in 1915. I introduced the same bill in 1917 and the bill that I then introduced called for the abolition of grade crossings, one grade crossing for every twenty miles, annually. The railroad corporations claimed that it was a very drastic bill. I didn't think so, but the railroad corporations were right and I was wrong. I will tell you, gentlemen, in all fairness, that I am glad that bill did not pass. In the 1919 session I again introduced a bill for the abolition of grade crossings which was referred to the Manufactures Committee. The Chairman of that committee, the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess, manufactured a bill that he thought was a good bill, and I agreed with him. That bill passed this House by a vote of one hundred and sixty-eight in favor of it and only twelve votes against it. Now, what has occurred? At every hearing that we have had railroad corporations always claimed that they were willing and wanted to abolish grade crossings but not according to the plan that we had. Now, what happened? At the beginning of this session I again introduced the bill that was manufactured by my friend, the gentleman from Lancaster, and what did we hear? We heard from the railroad corporations that it was not a workable bill. Several weeks after that bill was introduced I met a stockholder of one of the railroads of this State, and what did he say? He said, the bill was not practicable and it was not workable and I asked him to make a suggestion in regard to what he thought would be a good bill. I will tell you what he said. He said: "I should go and call on Governor Sproul; that he was a good business man and that is what I have done." When I called on the Governor he told me that he believed that grade crossings ought to be abolished, under the percentage plan, and I asked him what he thought would be a fair bill. He said a fair bill would be abolition of two per cent. of the grade crossings on main lines, and that, gentlemen, is the bill that you have before you for your consideration. Now, gentlemen, I will go a little bit further: Within eighteen miles of my home there are thirty-eight grade crossings. I know that you are going to pass this bill and there is only one thing more that I would like to say: If you believe that the killing of innocent people should be continued, vote against the bill. However, if you believe that the highways of this State should be made safe for the people, vote in favor of the measure.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

SENATE MESSAGE.

HOUSE BILL CONCURRED IN BY THE SENATE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

House Bill No. 1162.

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-sixth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws six hundred and thirty-nine) entitled "An act defining sedition and prescribing the punishment therefor"

With the information that the Senate has passed the same without amendment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1431 MADE A SPECIAL ORDER.

Mr. WONER. I move that House Bill No. 1431, file folio 4845, entitled:

An Act to regulate the drilling operating and abandoning of oil and gas wells and providing a penalty for violation of the provisions of this act on page 24 of to-day's calendar be made a special order of business for 8:30 o'clock this evening.

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WONER. Mr. Speaker, I want to assure the members of the House that I would not impose upon their good nature on behalf of the gas and oil counties in the western end of this State if it were not for the fact that every delay in getting this bill into law means the loss of property of hundreds of thousands of dollars in that territory. The important emergency being this: That in Warren and Venango counties they are uncapping wells where the pressure is lower than the atmospheric pressure permitting the introduction of air and destroying the gas flow. That is the emergency clause gentlemen, and there are many other things. I hope you will permit this bill to be made a special order because the oil and gas territory is asking for it. I have pointed this circumstance out to you but there are many members in the House who can even give you more definite information than I can.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

HOUSE BILL NO. 769 MADE A SPECIAL ORDER.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 769, file folio 4829, entitled:

on page 19 of to-day's calendar, the Mothers' Pension Act be made a special order of business for 7:30 o'clock to-night.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 346, entitled:

An Act imposing a State tax upon unnaturalized foreign born male and female persons over the age of twenty-one years resident within this Commonwealth providing for the collection of such tax and the distribution thereof and imposing penalties

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I want to call your attention to the bill that is now before you for your consideration. As I read this bill it is a tax of five dollars on all unnaturalized foreign-born persons, male or female, over the age of twenty-one years, and it provides in section 6 that any constable, police officer or member of the State Police force may at any time stop any unnaturalized born person, male or female, over the age of twenty-one years, and demand from such person the production of a receipt showing the payment of a state tax. Then, it goes on to provide for penalties in the event that the tax is not paid. Mr. Speaker, it appears to me that we have had in this session no piece of legislation that presents as serious a question as this bill does. In the first place, as you all know, it discriminates between those of us who are citizens and those of us who are not citizens. This is a time when we are making every possible effort to Americanize those who have been unfortunate enough not to have been born within the borders of this great country, but, gentlemen of the House, as I define this measure, it would seem to me entirely unfit to fix the price of citizenship at five dollars per year. It seems to me also, gentlemen of the House, that this is the day when we ought to do all things from a broader point of view. The great trouble, it seems to me, with conditions in this country, is a proneness of the people to classify into castes, to differentiate one from the other, and it seems to me that the last point of discrimination is that of citizen and non-citizen.

You men all know too that under the laws of this country, foreigners are brought in here under the protection of the law, and once having been admitted, they are entitled to the same protection as the citizen. You know too, that under the provisions of the federal law, no one can be a citizen unless he shall have lived here for a period of five years. Does it not seem to you wrong, if not unjust, that we should charge in the State of Pennsylvania—and that is what it will mean,—an admission tax, so to speak, for every foreign-born unnaturalized person? It seems to me that once within the borders of the State of Pennsylvania, with an intention to remain here for the rest of their lives, any foreign-born citizen could be a citizen after a period of five years. So it would seem to me that the State of Pennsylvania is charging an admission tax to the foreign-born in the sum of twenty-five dollars. Now gentlemen of the House, does that ring Pennsylvanian, does that ring American? Does Pennsylvania want to stoop to such lengths in its efforts to raise revenue? I submit to you, gentlemen, that this bill should not pass for the reasons that I have already stated. It does not seem fair; it does not seem to me in the line of the development of this State and country, and for these reasons I ask you to vote against the bill.

Mr. CHRISTIAN MILLER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman who just preceded me spoke about this being an admission tax. Now, I don't take it in that sense. As I understand him, he speaks of the foreign-born being here for a period of five years before he can avail himself of the opportunity of becoming a citizen. After he has been here for two years, before becoming a citizen of this Commonwealth, he is entitled to all the privileges that any other citizen of this Commonwealth, enjoys with the exception of voting, and I submit to you, gentlemen of the House, that he has as much right to pay taxes to these institutions to which you and I contribute as we have.

Mr. DUNLAP. Mr. Speaker, we have enjoyed one side of the story by the gentlemen who have proceeded me, and especially by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling. There are many points to this bill which may be looked upon with disfavor. I am satisfied that all the members of this House are citizens of the United States: if there is any question about that, I would like to have it investgated. The gentleman has also spoken of class distinction. The fact remains that we have classes in this country—citizens and non-citizens. This applies to the class of non-citizens. I am in a position to know a good deal about the foreign citizens of the city of Pittsburgh who have been there from ten to twenty years with no intention or ambition to become citizens. I have asked them why they do not become citizens and they give me the laugh, justly so, because we let them get away with it. They raise children; that is one of the habits in this element; they send their children to the schools and enjoy all the privileges of American citizens and pay not a dime for it, or have not until the Federal government came in and assessed them on their incomes. I have my doubts as to the constitutionality of this bill. Nevertheless, it is unfortunate if it is unconstitutional and our constitution should be changed if it is. They get the same protection, as I have said before, from our police authorities and our fire department and our various municipal and civic governments and they do not pay a dime for their maintenance. You talk about the necessity of securing revenue for the school system—if this bill succeeds in passing it will raise a larger revenue than most of the bills we have shouted about in the past. During the late war I was one of the unfortunate individuals who helped to do the fighting for which we received due credit, but these individuals very carefully asserted their privileges of claiming exemption under the draft; carefully stayed at home and worked in our factories and munition plants and secured an abundance of wealth while the poor American citizens were fighting the battles for them and for their country, their mother country as well as for this country. Gentlemen, I think this bill has a powerful lot of Americanism in it, and I would that I were an orator so that I could elucidate more explicitly upon it.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, if for no other purpose this bill should pass, in order to encourage those who have been here for five years or more to become naturalized to be relieved of the tax imposed. My good friend from Allegheny has spoken. In the city of Philadelphia during the late war 80,000 aliens claimed exemption and stayed there in the workshops, munition plants and ship yards, earning from eight to twelve dollars a day, while the American boy, born here, sacrificed his job and went to France for his country, and when they came back were without their positions and are walking the streets unemployed while the aliens are still holding the jobs. The national government now is trying to restrict immigration. There are 100,000 coming over here every month, while thousands of American citizens are walking the streets looking for work. If for no other purpose, this bill should pass to make those who want to be relieved of the tax become American citizens.

Mr. WOLFE. Mr. Speaker, I do not think this bill needs any defense. Many bills are killed because they are overtalked. We have been clamoring for revenue, and have been taxing coal and gasoline and various other resources, and here we have the means of collecting a tax from residents of our State who should pay for their citizenship and help to keep up the institutions which they are helping to fill: our schools our hospitals, our penitentiaries, and there is no reason why they should not assist in paying the taxes.

The following is a communication received from the Secretary of the Allied Patriotic Societies of America:

"The Allied Patriotic Societies of America is composed of organizations which believe in the restriction of immigration and the membership of the said organization is composed of American born persons and we believe that those coming to our country seeking freedom and liberty should show their appreciation of the benefits they receive from our American form of Government by becoming naturalized citizens and supporting our institution and American form of Government.

"We, the Allied Patriotic Societies of America, representing a membership of more than 500,000 members in the State of Pennsylvania have unanimously approved of House Bill No. 346, 'An Act imposing a State tax upon unnaturalized foreign born male and female persons over the age of twenty-one, resident within this Commonwealth;' and most earnestly urge that your Honorable body will favorably consider the bill and enact it into law."

Also, this statement:

"A Statement giving the number of Foreign-born White Males 21 years of age and over, classified according to Citizenship, in Pennsylvania, 1910:

PENNSYLVANIA, 1910.

Total	741,610
Naturalized	248,827
Having First Papers	46,416
Alien	367,766
Citizenship Not Reported	78,601

I figure it would produce a revenue of approximately four million dollars and I see no reason why this bill should not be passed.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege at this time.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I attempted to get the floor before the calling of the roll and yelled loud enough in trying to get the floor. Since the roll was called the sponsor of the bill has notified me that the objectional feature in section six of the bill was not amended in committee and that they intended to amend the bill in the Senate. The feature in the bill to which I object was that, "any constable, police officer or member of the state police may at any time stop any unnaturalized foreigner"—we have a dog license in some of the counties, and this would mean putting a brass check on every foreigner in this State. I believe in taxing and I only want to state at this time that I have no objections to the bill as it stands now and as it has been promised to be amended.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL STRICKEN FROM THE CALENDAR.

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that House Bills No. 1235 and 1257 were companion bills and since 1257 was amended in committee so that it makes it next to impossible to suit conditions, I would move that House Bill No. 1235 be stricken from the calendar.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. SPEAKER, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk then read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 1 page 1 lines 10 and 11 striking out the following "repairs as will be sufficient to pay for taxes insurances"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

The SPEAKER. These amendments only providing for striking out duplicate words the bill is before the House on third reading and final passage.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, I have asked one of the gentlemen from Philadelphia to speak briefly on this bill to-night, and shall therefore take only a moment on the bill myself, as I have asked Mr. Smink to say a few words in favor of the measure as I presume there will be some opposition to it. A condition exists in Allegheny County especially, and we happen to know more about the condition there than we do in other parts of the State, that needs a remedy. We have rents being raised there from thirty, forty, fifty and in many cases one hundred per cent. This bill has two important features in it, one allowing the landlord an eight per cent. increase upon his property, and the other making it necessary for the landlord and tenement to notify each other mutually ninety days, in case of a yearly lease, before the lease would be terminated. We believe that this legislation is necessary and ought to pass. I am going to give the rest of the time that I might occupy on speaking on this bill to my friend from Philadelphia, Mr. Smink.

Mr. SMINK. Mr. Speaker, early in the present session of the Legislature I introduced a resolution in accordance with the suggestion of the Governor in his address to the Legislature, on January 18th, calling for the appointment of a Commission to investigate the Housing Situation in Pennsylvania. This resolution was for the purpose of ascertaining, if possible, just what the conditions really were, and to find a remedy, or at least, some relief. It was a resolution to correct the present deplorable conditions and prohibit the reoccurrence, if possible.

But it seems as though it was looked upon as a resolution for the purpose of exposure and punishment, and fell peaceably asleep in committee. Several other bills were introduced with a view of relieving the conditions under which tenants throughout the State were suffering; but like the resolution, were nursed asleep in committee.

I am not complaining, for I have a great deal of respect and confidence in the Municipal Corporations Committee and its Chairman, and I simply refer to them in answer to some of the arguments presented against the present bill under consideration, to show that there has been an attempt to meet the situation from many angles.

In the wisdom of the Municipal Corporations Committee, House Bill No. 1257, introduced by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Martin, was finally reported out, and it is the only bill now possible to pass at this session, dealing with Rent Profiteering. It seems to me, in view of this fact alone, we should pass this bill, and at least show an endeavor to meet the most menacing situation now confronting the Commonwealth.

I agree with my opponents that the only perpetual solution to the problem of housing is the building of more homes. But the question of importance which confronts us at this time is what we are to do with the thousands of distressed tenants while these homes are being built. Other States have met the situation by similar measures, and only last Monday the United States Supreme Court upheld the authority of Federal and State Legislatures to enact laws against Rent Profiteering and Eviction of tenants refusing to submit to such gouging by landlords, in declaring constitutional the Act of Congress regulating rent in the District of Columbia.

Among other things Judge Holmes in his decision says:

"A public exigency will justify the Legislature in restricting property rights in land to a certain extent without compensation."

"No doubt it is true that a legislative declaration of facts that are material only as the ground for enacting a rule of law, for instance, that a certain use is a public one, may not be held conclusive by the courts, but a declaration by a Legislature concerning public conditions, as by necessity and duty it must know is entitled at least to great respect."

"In this instance Congress stated a publicly notorious and also world-wide fact. That the emergency declared by the statute did exist must be assumed, and the question is whether Congress was incompetent to meet it in the way in which it has been met by most of the civilized countries of the world."

"The fact that tangible property also is visible tends to give a rigidity to our conception of our rights in it that we do not attach to others less concretely clothed. But the notion that the former are exempt from the legislation modification required from time to time in civilized life is contradicted not only by the doctrine of eminent domain, under which what is taken is paid for, but by that of the police power in its proper sense, under which property rights may be cut down and to that extent without pay."

"Under the police power the right to erect buildings in a certain quarter of a city may be limited from eighty to 100 feet. Safe pillars may be required in coal mines, billboards in cities may be regulated, watersheds in the country may be kept clear."

"These cases are enough to establish that a public exigency will justify the Legislature in restricting property rights in land to a certain extent without compensation. But if to answer one need the Legislature may limit height, to answer another it may limit rent."

There is hardly any necessity to go into the details responsible for the present conditions, for I feel that every Member of this House is well acquainted with them and I will pass over distressing incidents too numerous to mention. The following editorial from the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin is well worth considering:

"When families who make up the warp and woof of the community are unable to find suitable housing; or, on finding it, are subjected to extortionate demands for purchase of rent, and speculative profits are being made by the few at the expense of the many, complicating the economic problem of the day and contributing to the hard times, it is the duty of the State, through its Representative Administration, to acknowledge a responsibility and at least make an attempt to set things right.

"The State regulates Public Service by virtue of the paramount public interest. It enacts laws, and when necessary enforces them against the conserving of food and other necessary supplies. Although there are difficulties in the way of its application, the principle of the old common law against forestalling, and similar manipulation of the market against the individual buyer, is recognized.

"A home in which to live is a primary essential in the living of the people, and when the home market is seized upon as a field of speculation for profit grabbing, there is equal reason for the State to interfere. At least, to the extent of seeking out a possible relief and remedy."

The law of supply and demand is at best a weak excuse to boost prices, even in normal times; but when taken advantage of in a period of reconstruction following a great war, it is to be condemned by every patriotic, liberty loving citizen of this Commonwealth. This condition has been seized upon by the profiteering landlord and the speculating realty broker to gouge those, who during the war were the least able, and yet gave ungrudgingly almost to the last penny, in order that the world might be made safe for democracy.

Tenants are not refusing to pay increased rents as a matter of choice. It is because they are unable to make their income cover their expenditures at this time when wages are dropping. These conditions are creating a dangerous social unrest, which is detrimental to the welfare of the State and Nation, as has been well said by Senator Kenyon, who has just concluded a nation-wide investigation of this subject, when he states,

"There is nothing that will produce Bolshevists more readily than this menacing housing condition."

On the question recurring,

BILL ON THIRD READING (SPECIAL ORDER).

The SPEAKER. The hour of 8:15 P. M. having arrived, the Chair will take up the special order set for this hour.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 834, entitled:

An Act to amend an act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" by providing for the appointment dismissal and reduction of teachers principals and supervisors

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, this bill applies only to the first and second class school districts. All it does is to carry out certain things in these two districts and gives the teacher the right to make good. The teacher can only be discharged for certain reasons, and then only by charges in writing, and then only during the three-year probationary period.

Mr. CHRISTIAN MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Walker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHRISTIAN MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman who is going to be the judge as to whether they are making good or not?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. The school board.

Mr. FOX. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Walker, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FOX. Have you any assurance that this bill will not be amended in the Senate?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I would not dare assure this House as to what the Senate will do on any bill.

Mr. FOX. Might not this bill be amended in the Senate to include the third and fourth class districts?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Even if it is amended in the Senate, it has to come here for approval.

Mr. FOX. Mr Speaker, I would like to know why the word immortality is used?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. We used to think that was the proper word to use in connection with school teachers, we thought they would never die. This is merely a mistake in printing, and the word will be amended in the Senate to read "immorality". I did not want to mention the word here.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order.

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1515, entitled:

An Act to amend section ten of an act approved the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-two (Pamphlet Laws four hundred and forty-one) entitled "An act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the government payment of the interest upon the State debt receiving of proposals for the sale of the public works and for other purposes" providing for the appointment by the county commissioners of a board of revision in counties of the fourth class

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Erie.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie, Mr. J. Reed Craig, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. J. REED CRAIG. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Erie please tell the House what the purpose of this act is?

Mr. J. REED CRAIG. Mr. Speaker, this bill applies only to counties of the fourth class of this Commonwealth. It is a bill which amends the act of 1842, insofar as it provides that the county commissioners shall consist of a board of tax revision and appeal. This amendment to that law provides that the county commissioners shall appoint three citizens of the county who shall be owners of real estate and who shall constitute a board of revision and appeal. I took this up with the members of fourth class counties generally and they agree with me that it is a meritorious bill.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I was not sure on the first reading of this bill whether my eyes were fooling me or not. At the present time the act provides that the board of county commissioners, who are elected by the people of the county, constitute the board of revision of taxes. Now, I don't know of any commissioners in those counties, especially in fourth class counties, to which this bill refers, who are so much overtaxed that it requires them to hire three other men at $2,500 each to help them perform their duties. My exprience has been that the county commissioners have about the least work of any men in the county. In most fourth class counties they work about one day a week, possibly a week or two, or perhaps a month, during the time when they are sitting as a board of revision of taxes. Therefore, they want to get out of that job now and hire these men while they who are elected by the people by their vote and who are directly responsible to them are here asking to be given permission to appoint three other men to sit as a board of revision of taxes and help them to do nothing. I ask you, as I represent a fourth class county, that this extra burden be not placed on the fourth class counties in order to give the county commissioners a little chance to earn their salary, and that we do not take their jobs away from them and have three other men do the work. I hope you will vote against the bill.

Hon. ALBERT E. CURRY, Representative from Armstrong county offered the following prayer:

Oh, Thou eternal and infinite Jehovah, we adore Thy great and holy name today, and we would place our implicit confidence and trust in Thee. Thou hast made it as a thing of life that has Redeemed us from our sins. So perfect our faith this morning, that believing in Thee, we may rejoice with joy unspeakable and fullness of glory. Open our eyes today and we shall behold wonderful things out of Thy most holy law of truth. Enlarge our hearts and we shall run the way of Thy precepts.

And now Heavenly Father we would pray that Thou wouldst grant Thy richest blessing to rest with us to-day, and may all that we do be under the inspiration and guidance of Thy Holy Spirit. And at this morning hour as we are called to new tasks and duties we pray Thee Heavenly Father that we might have a renewed consciousness of the fellowship with Jesus Christ. Give to us courageous and brave hearts to-day that we may follow whithersoever He leads. Grant Thy richest blessing to rest upon this Assembly and may the counsel of the Most High guide us in every problem, and assist us in reaching just and righteous conclusions. And Thy name shall have all the glory, world without end. Amen.

BILL ON THIRD READING (SPECIAL ORDER).

Mr. DAVID J. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to call up at this time from page 54 of to-day's calendar, bills on third reading, House Bill No. 1495, File Folio No. 6435.

A bill similar to this was passed early in the session and was vetoed by the Governor on the grounds that it was unconstitutional. In order to overcome this objection I introduced the present bill which provides for an amendment to the Constitution in order to exempt from taxation property owned by any branch of the Grand Army of the Republic, the Spanish-American War Veterans, the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States.

As this bill is of such universal interest I move that it be made a special order on third reading and final passage at this time.

Mr. JORDAN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1495, entitled:

A Joint Resolution providing an amendment to article nine section one of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania so as to permit the exemption from taxation of real and personal property owned occupied or used by any branch or post or camp of the Grand Army of the Republic the Spanish-American War Veterans the American Legion the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING (SPECIAL ORDER).

Mr. ASTON. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 376, File Folio 4923, on page 35 of to-day's calendar, be made a special order at this time.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. DUNLAP. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill—I want to know what the purpose of this bill is.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Aston, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ASTON. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir; and in answer to the gentleman I will say, the purpose of the bill is to relieve a condition existing in the building business of this Commonwealth of certain evils. It proposes to protect the material men, subcontractors and wage earners.

Mr. DUNLAP. As I understand this bill it places the responsibility for the payment of the material on the lessees or owner in the construction of a building and gives the subcontractor a claim on him whether he is paid by the general contractor or not. In other words, he is liable for the bills of the subcontractor for materials or any work done by the subcontractor under a general contract, and that does not appear to be fair.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will state that the motion has already been put and has been agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 376, entitled:

An Act providing that persons associations and corporations owning occupying or controlling premises upon which any contractor or sub-contractor shall be permitted to do certain classes of construction work shall be liable for the wages of all employes engaged in such work and for the cost of all materials supplied for such work unless the contractor or sub-contractor shall file a bond for the immediate payment of wages and the cost of material when due providing that a contractor shall be liable for the wages of employes of any sub-contractor and for the cost of materials furnished to any sub-contractor unless such sub-contractor shall file a bond covering the same requiring every such contractor or sub-contractor to file a bond specifying the form and amount of such bond and permitting persons furnishing labor or materials to sue in such bond to recover wages and the cost of such materials

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—42.

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 297, File Folio 5359, on page 51 of to-day's calendar, be made a special order of businesss at this time.

Mr. McKNIGHT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order.

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 297, entitled:

An Act to repeal an act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five (Pamphlet Laws one hundred and forty-four) entitled "An act for the regulation of advertising of general elections"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny Mr. Stadtlander, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Will the gentleman kndly explain what the purpose of this bill is?

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, this bill is to clarify the situation in our county relative to advertising proclamations, election proclamations. As the act now is they can only advertise in four papers. The sheriff has advertised in all of the newspapers. The controller and the board have always passed on the warrants issued for these election proclamations. This merely clarifies the situation so that we may advertise in as many papers as the sheriff does now.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, this act is an act to repeal an act, now what is the act of June 23, 1895 that this act repeals?

Mr. STADTLANDER. That is an act pertaining to our county relative to advertising in four papers.

Mr. ALEXANDER. That is a special act?

Mr. STADTLANDER. It is a special act.

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL ON THIRD READING (SPECIAL ORDER).

Mr. SPROWLS. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 912, File Folio 5141, on page 40 of today's calendar be made a special order of business at this time.

Mr. GEORGE T. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 912, entitled:

An Act to amend sections one thousand four hundred fourteen as amended one thousand four hundred seventeen one thousand four hundred twenty-one as amended one thousand four hundred twenty-two as amended one thousand four hundred twenty-three one thousand four hundred twenty-four and one thousand four hundred thirty-eight of an act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repeaing all laws general special or local or any part thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Sprowls, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SPROWLS. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Washington explain the purpose of this bill.

Mr. SPROWLS. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of the bill is to change the time of entering school from eight to six.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, in other words as I understand this bill provides for changing the age of eight years to six years.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will state to the members of the House that it is more proper to have a thorough investigation of these bills made than it is to pass the bill across the desk blindly. The Chair will welcome any request for recognition by any member who desires to be informed in regard to a bill. It certainly should not be the intent of the Legislature during the last few days to pass any ill-digested or ill-advised legislation merely because certain members feel a delicacy about questioning the wisdom of the passage of a bill.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, do I understand from what has been said so far that this bill reduces the compulsory age in all districts to six in place of eight as it now stands.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, that is exactly what this bill does. Dr. Finnegan has said and gives us his promise that in the Senate he will have this bill amended to give the board of directors discretionary power to use their judgment in its enforcement and the setting aside of these provisions so far as attending school is concerned due to bad weather, illness and other reasonable excuses. He asks that the bill be passed in its present form in the House, and he asks that we asssure the members of the House that these amendments will be inserted in the Senate.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, in my opinion there should be no discretion with the board of directors. Bad weather and illness are not the only reasons for not sending children to school between the ages of six and eight. I have watched personally this question very thoroughly for many years, and I have kept tabs in many instances, and my experience has been that the child that starts at seven or eight progresses just as rapidly as the one that starts at six and arrives at graduation in the high schools very many times far better than the child that starts at six. You are taking away from the parents the discretion of saying whether or not that child shall start before the age of eight and as I say I have noticed this, I taught school myself and I have watched this. I have watched this program all the way through. I say again I believe the child at six in many instances may be healthy, may be just as bright as any other child, but at that time if you get them a year or two later a little bit later in their childhood, they are much stronger, much hungrier at the age of eight, work harder at the age of eight than they do earlier. They are not tired out at and drilled down at six or seven as when they are younger. My experience is as I say that eight is a better age. I do not believe we should leave the discretion to anybody except to the parents as to whether they are to send their child to school before they are eight.

Mr. SPROWLS. Mr. Speaker, I wish to say for the benefit of the House that I have the amendments in my pocket at the present time and will see that they are presented in the Senate, changing the word "six" all through the bill to the word "seven" as agreed upon by the department. That was a compromise, and I hope this bill goes through.

Mr. WOODRUFF. Mr. Speaker, I have always been opposed to the principle making compulsory attendance as low as six years. I even question the advisability of seven years. Unless this bill can be given considerable latitude in the principle of compulsory education at these tender years, I shall be against it. I do not believe in compulsory attendance at school in those tender years, when childhood at those times is more apt to be wrecked than helped in school.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, while I think there is a great deal of merit in what the gentleman from Delaware and the gentleman from Snyder has said about the tender years, I want to call the attention of the House that this is a part of the general Americanization program, and is intended to reach the children who run around the streets idle during those times. It is the idea to compel them to go to school. As this bill will be enforced with latitude and ample room given to the special cases to which they refer, when we consider the crowded and congested cases, I believe this bill should be passed.

On the question recurring.

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING (SPECIAL ORDER).

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1294, File Folio 5361, on page 49 of today's calendar, be made a special order of business at this time.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, I might say that this bill authorizes the Governor, the Auditor General and the State Treasurer to present a report to the General Assembly in the future, in the opening weeks of the sessions, covering the financial condition of the state, showing the revenue for two years, what the expenditures were for the two preceding years, and an estimate of the revenues and expenditures for the next two years. This bill was drafted with the consent of the Governor, and has his endorsement. Indeed he helped considerably in the preparation of it.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1294, entitled:

An Act to provide for the creation of a Budget Commission and making an appropriation therefor

BILL ON THIRD READING (SPECIAL ORDER).

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1417, File Folio 6251, on page 35 of today's calendar, be made a special order of business at this time.

Mr GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1417, as follows:

An Act authorizing the registration and operation of certain motor vehicles and providing for the sale thereof and the application of the proceeds of such sale

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That whenever any person shall have legally within his possession any motor vehicle for a period of at least one year and such motor vehicle was not left with such person for storage or for the performance of labor thereon and the owner thereof is unknown and cannot after due diligence be ascertained it shall be lawful for such person upon proof of the facts to the State Highway Department to have such motor vehicle registered in his own nme and to operate the same on the public highways of this Commonwealth

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Marshall, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I wish the sponsor would explain this bill.

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Delaware I would say that this bill as it has been drawn has the approval of the Attorney General's Department. It authorizes the highway department to issue licenses under conditions that they do not have at the present time. This bill was drafted to cover conditions where automobiles came into the proper control of people, not the owners, where the cars are left on their hands, and they do not have the authority to sell them. This bill authorizes them to issue a license during such a time. It will meet a condition confronting the highway department at the present time, where it does not have the authority to handle these cars.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman further.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentlemna from Beaver, Mr. Marshall, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. MARSHALL. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I notice the title says "authorizing the registration and operation of certain motor vehicles and providing for the sale thereof and the application of the proceeds of such sale."

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, there was an amendment offered. The bill, as originally drawn, contained a clause, the sale section, but the Attorney General's Department said that the sale section was covered by the act of 1863, so the bill was amended. I noticed to-day that the amendment has not been made to the title.

Mr. ALEXANDER. But the title does say this—

Mr. MARSHALL. As the bill was originally drawn it had that clause at the latter part of it. When the bill was on second reading an amendment was inserted, and also an amendment to the title. I notice in the printing that the printer has not included the amendment to the title. I noticed that to-day just before I made my motion, and I intend to have it amended in the Senate.

Mr. ALEXANDER. In your opinion, don't you think that it is possible under this act, if a man were employed in the Highway Department, to use one of the cars of the Highway Department and get the license for that car in his own name and not have it charged up to the Highway Department?

Mr. MARSHALL. No, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Why not, what is to prohibit him under this act?

Mr. MARSHALL. The act is not intended to cover a case of that kind.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Wouldn't the act permit just such a thing as that to be done with the cars in the Highway Department, so that they would be charged up, perhaps as far as the license is concerned, to individuals.

Mr. MARSHALL. I do not think so, the bill was gone over very carefully.

Mr. ALEXANDER. It is reported that that thing is being done at the present time, and I wonder whether this act is so covered so that that could be carried out.

Mr. MARSHALL. It says here, "where the owner thereof is unknown," which cuts out those cases. I may say for the information of the House that this bill was suggested because of this peculiar condition which existed no other place in the State. About a year and a half ago, in my own county, an automobile was wrecked along the highway, and the driver of that machine abandoned it. The constable in our township took charge of the machine, and it has been on his hands for more than a year and a half. The Highway Department cannot issue him a license for that machine, he cannot sell it, he cannot give it away because he has no title to it, and he cannot do anything with it. Under this bill he would be authorized to get a license to use the car, but he would be responsible for it even though it is not his own. The Highway Department said that they could not issue a license to him for it because they were not authorized so to do by law, but they would do it if they were given authority. Now, this law would act in cases such as this, where the car has been in a man's possession for more than a year and a half and where the owner is unknown. In this particular case the ownership was traced through the factory to a city in Nebraska. The man had left there and they could not find his address. This is the particular case which prompted the drafting of the bill. I think the section which provides that the ownership must be unknown would curb the Highway Department in the misuse of any machine.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that the purposes of this act are entirely miscarried. I can very readily see how it might be well for an act of Assembly to carry out the provisions as shown in the title, ""authorizing the registration and operaiton of certain motor vehicles and providing for the sale thereof and the application of the proceeds of said sale." If the bill provided that which is in the latter part of the title, it would be a very good proposition, but I do not believe it is proper, even taking into consideration what the sponsor of the bill has said, I do not think it is proper if a constable finds a car along the road, that he should be permitted to get a license for that car and use it as his own. He has no more right to that car than you and I have. He has no more right to a license to that car than you would have. If the constable could get a license to such a car, there are many other people besides the constable who could get a license to a car under such conditions.

If they can get a license for that car to which they have no right or title nobody will ever find out where his car is. This act, as it provides now, will stop detection in many instances rather than supply knowledge to the constable that a man has found a car of a certain make with a certain number. At the present time he can trace it up and the owner has some chance of claiming it if it has been stolen. He will simply get a license and in this act it provides a means by which they have found a manner to provide for its sale. I am not satisfied to give my vote to permit a man to say that when he finds a car it is his own, when he has no right to it whatever.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, this is a very meritorious bill. I have had no knowledge of it until I heard the discussion here this morning. I want to tell of the finding of a car at Eleventh and Girard Avenue in Philadelphia, which was taken possession of by the finder. He advertised and possibly spent from fifty to seventy-five dollars advertising the car, but the owner did not appear for it and he then applied to the State Highway Commissioner for a license. The Highway Commissioner refused to issue a license. The Attorney General, whose opinion I have here, states that there is a defect in our law, in this respect, that ought to be remedied; because if a man finds an automobile and makes every effort that can be used to find the owner, but cannot find him, he cannot run the automobile because he cannot get a license and probably cannot sell it and it lies in a garage and he does not know what to do with it. I ask you to correct this error and pass this bill.

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, the bill stipulates that the Highway Department will only issue this license after due proof has been given that diligence has been exercised in trying to find the real owner. In regard to the sale of the automobile, under these provisions there is a way by which automobiles can be sold under the act of 1863, the Storage Act. The owner is absolutely better protected in the hands of a finder than if it was sold, and had gone into the hands of a purchaser as required under the act of 1863. I ask you to support this bill.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will suggest to the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Marshall, that when there is opposition to any bill in a light House the bill is apt to go down.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

BILL ON THIRD READING (SPECIAL ORDER).

Mr. GIBBON. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1075, File Folio 4835, on page 27 of to-day's calendar, be made a special order of business at this time.

Mr. SMINK. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker, while I am in entire sympathy with the provisions of this bill I am opposed to its being made a special order at this time. The gentleman who sponsors this bill has done more to retard and delay important legislation than any other member of this House. There is now in his Committee and has been for days not only a bill on which a motion was presented to this House, but other legislation vitally affecting the interests of the City of Pittsburgh. These delays make it impossible to have any action taken on them, and for that reason I am going to register a vigorous protest against this bill being made a special order at this time, with all due respect to the gentleman who made the motion.

Mr. HESS. That, Mr. Speaker, is most unfair. That is most unfair to object to this bill being made a special order at this time and to subject the religious people that are interested in this legislation to the delays and possibly to the loss and defeat of this bill because of any feeling there is between the gentleman from Allegheny and the sponsor of this bill. The organization that is intrested in the passage of this bill are to have a convention in Harrisburg next week, and delegates representing their organization will be here from every point in the Commonwealth. They will have to have three days to have this bill passed by the Senate and unless this House passes this bill to-day it is practically lost. I think under the circumstances the House should sustain the motion of the gentleman from Luzerne and let this bill be made a special order.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaeker, nothing has been shown to this House, why this bill should have any preference over any other bills on the calendar. It is not political in its provisions and there is other legislation on the calendar that is more important than this bill. I hope the motion will be defeated.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, there is one thing that I think this bill should receive from this House with all due deference to my friend from Allegheny, Mr. Dithrich, and that is this consideration. A great many folks have been here in the interests of this bill whom we have seen around the halls of this House. They have a certain religious tenet in which they believe and they practice that religious tenet in a proper way. I am informed that they may be arrested and imprisoned. They are not fortune tellers, they are a body known as a spiritualistic body. I do not know what it means, but I do know that they are arrested every now and then when they are guilty of no apparent offense. It seems to me in order that we may relieve decent people from arrest we ought to pass this bill.

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker, it has been explained to me clearly that this bill was introduced by request. I therefore withdraw my objection to its being made a special order at this time.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1075, entitled:

An Act to amend sections one and two of an act approved the eight day of April one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one (Pamphlet Laws two hundred and seventy) entitled "An act for the suppression of fortune telling and similar purposes"

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING (SPECIAL ORDER).

Mr. DAWSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1056, File Folio 4781, on page 25 of to-day's calendar be made a special order of business at this time.

Mr. W. W. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. DAWSON. Mr. Speeaker, a few days ago House Bill No. 1054, and yesterday House Bill No. 1055 was passed. This is a companion bill. It is simply to change the present act referring to the State Board of Education and make it read the State Council of Education. It only changes one word. We have already passed the act creating a new State Council of Education, therefore, I ask you to pass this particular bill which simply eliminates the word "Board" and substitutes the word "Council".

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to thethird reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1056, entitled:

An Act to amend sections five and seven and repeal sections eight and ten of an act approved the twenty-sixth day of June one thousand eight hundred ninety-five (Pamphlet Laws three hundred twenty-seven) entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation of institutions of learning with power to confer degrees in art pure and applied science philosophy literature medicine law and theology and for the supervision and regulation of the same and providing a method by which institutions already incorporated may obtain the power to confer degrees and exempting from the provisions of this act colleges heretofore incorporated by the courts of common pleas with power to confer degrees in cases where such colleges have at the time of the passage of this act a specified amount of capital or re-conferring upon the State Council of Education powers and duties heretofore vested in the College and University Council

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

BILL ON THIRD READING (SPECIAL ORDER).

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 954, File Folio 5179, on page 41 of to-day's calendar, be made a special order at this time.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. BOWER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Luzerne.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Schwartz, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. BOWER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman what purpose this bill serves.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, it is for the proper administration of justice in juvenile cases in our community as a fee of three cents a mile is less than a constable has to pay to take a juvenile case to court. The mileage he gets is eighteen cents, while he must pay thirty-two cents. He pays fourteen cents out of his own pocket. It takes quite a long time for a constable to gather in incorrigible cases. I am not personally interested in this bill, but have just presented it as sponsor for an organization of constables in Lackawanna. Mr. Ehrhardt is familiar with the bill and I think he can give you further information in regard to it. Mr. Speaker, I enjoy levity myself very much, and if the gentlemen do not think that this bill is of enough moment for the administration of justice in juvenile cases I wish to move to drop the bill from the calendar.

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker, just a word in explanation of this matter. This matter was considered very carefully by the Judiciary General Committee of the House. A representative from Luzerne was there and he explained what it is. It could not in anyway be considered a salary raiser, it simply makes the rates of the constables in juvenil cases equal to those of other cases. It is absolutely fair and I hope the gentlemen of the House will permit the bill to be considered at this time.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, what the gentleman from Allegheny has said is absolutely correct. This simply gives the officer in juvenile cases the same fees that he is entitled to as constable in all other cases. It is not a salary raiser, it only equalizes the fees with the other fees for the same office.

On the question recurring,

Will he House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 954, entitled:

An Act to amend section two of an act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and seven (Pamphlet Laws four hundred thirty-eight) entitled "An act to supplement an act entitled 'An act defining the powers of the several courts of quarter sessions of the peace within this Commonwealth with reference to the care treatment and control of dependent neglected incorrigible and delinquent children under the age of sixteen years and providing for the means in which such power may be exercised' approved April twenty-three one thousand nine hundred and three" by increasing fees and mileage of constables

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE.

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the bill which we now have under consideration is the Fisherman's License Bill. I realize, sir, that there has been sufficient going around the Senate to insure the passage of this bill, yet I am opposed to it, and I desire to state very briefly the reasons which impel me to be against the bill. This bill imposes a tax of one dollar and ten cents upon every adult citizen who desires to fish or angle in the streams of this Commonwealth. Mr. President, that, to my mind, is unecessary, unjust and improper for our people at this time. At this time it seems to be the order of the day that we should be harassed and annoyed by these various forms of taxation. It is simply another step toward centralization of power, when our people at this time want to be left alone in the pursuit of their happiness and their own pleasures. One dollar and ten cents may not be so much to the members of this Senate, or to the people who have been lobbying around this chamber all session, but I want to say to you that there are thousands and hundred of thousands of people upon whom that one dollar and ten cents each will fall as rather a heavy burden. I realize, as I said at the beginning, that this bill is destined to pass, and yet I want to call the attention to the members of this Senate, especially those from the country districts, that they will not meet with very popular favor in the future if they vote for this bill, as I understand a majority of them are going to. Mr. President, in opposing this bill I want to be fair to the Senate and say that I have not heard from very many people in my district, either for or against this bill. I rather feel that I represent the silent majority who are not heard in this legislative hall either directly or indirectly, the silent majority, rather than what has been termed the vociferous minority, or any overpaid lobbyists who infested this hall from beginning to end.

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, and gentlemen of the Senate: When the Hunter's License Bill was passed we met exactly the same opposition that we are meeting with in the passage of this Fisherman's License Bill. Before the meeting of the next legislature, after the passage of the Hunter's License Bill the legislation had received popular approval. Now I do not wish to suggest to the members of this body, the justice or injustice of requiring those who fish to pay for the fish or for the privilege of fishing. I simply wish to direct the attention of the members of this Senate to the fact, that the bill under consideration does not apply to or require any one under the age of twenty-one years of age to take out such license; nor does it require the owner of lands within the Commonwealth, nor any member of his family to take out a license to fish in the waters which are within or adjacent to the lands which he owns. There has been some criticism, when the bill was first introduced, that it might make available a large sum of money which would be used solely by the Department of Game and Fisheries. The Department of Game and Fisheries wished only to have sufficient funds to properly sustain itself and to properly carry out the work which the department had undertaken and which the sportsmen and fishermen of the State were demanding that it continue. To meet that objection the Committee on Game and Fisheries in the Senate have amended the bill so that all sums received from fisherman's license in excess of the sum of four hundred thousand dollars shall be paid into the general funds of the Commonwealth, so that if the department becomes more than self-sustaining, there shall be no opportunity for extravagance or for piling up a large and useless fund.

To meet objections also the bill has been amended to provide that it shall not take effect until next year. I have no personal interest in this legislation, gentlemen, but I think we ought to point out before voting upon it just what the bill now contains since it has been so amended. If you think, gentlemen, that those who fish ought to pay for the fish as those who hunt are now glad to do you will vote for the bill; if you are opposed to paying for the expense of stocking the streams with the fish which you catch you ought to vote against it. That is all I can see to do.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, it has just been stated that under the provisions of this bill owners of land were exempt. I desire to correct that. The bill only provides that the owner of land, or the owner of a farm, who permanently resides thereon, is exempt. Therefore, any owner of a farm who lives in the city and does not permanently reside on his farm but has rented it away and resides only a portion of the year on the farm is not exempt. That at best, is subterfuge. When the hunter's license provided that every owner of a farm should be exempted there was more to that exemption. On every farm there may be some hunting, but the proportion of farms in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, on which there can be fishing is a mighty small percentage, and taking the small percentage of farms in the Commonwealth which have streams in which you may fish, and then limiting the exemption only to those farmers who own their farm and reside permanently upon them, and the whole provision is nothing but a subterfuge. The man who does the tilling of the soil, and his family, the tenants, are not exempt, and it is the principle, Mr. President, that is vicious, and that we are opposed to, the taking away from the peeople of our Commonwealth of that freedom of action which we have boasted of for so many years. To-day we are nothing but harassed and hedged in with certificates, licenses and permits from the birth certificate through the marriage license until the burial permit, and it is this vicious principle of being hedged around with permits and certificates and licenses that the good people of this Commonwealth object to. It is admitted on the face of the bill that it is not only a bill to raise sufficient funds for the propagation of fish, otherwise the provision would not be in, that all the funds in excess of four hundred thousand dollars shall be turned into the General Treasury of the Commonwealth. There is an admission in the bill that it is an effort to tax the fisherman for the purpose of raising revenue other than for the propagation of fish, and what is the use of raising money and putting fish into your streams as long as you permit and tolerate pollution, which cleans out the streams of fish from one end to the other? It is a waste of money to raise it, and put fish into the streams, unless you have purified them and protected them, so that when the money is spent and the fish put into the streams they may live and thrive.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I had the honor in 1913 of sponsoring the Hunters License Act. At that time the bill was fought, and afterwards it became very popular. In answer to the Senator from Lehigh I would say that this money is intended to propagate and to protect the fish. We need a large number of wardens and while there are some streams polluted, this money will be spent to help to stop the pollution of streams. I represent one of the largest districts in the State of Pennsylvania and the people in my district are almost unanimous for this bill.

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, if it be true that there are only a small number of farms within the limits of the Commonwealth which contain or are bordered by streams in which people may fish, it seems to me that there should be some provision in the bill, which provision is there, that some wealthy man who lives in the city, would not be permitted to buy up all these good fishing grounds, and thereby close them to the fishing public. I have no doubt that that is why the people who framed this bill provided that to secure an exemption from taking out a license you have to live upon the farm. Of course if that were not true, if it were not so provided, it would be possible for some wealthy person, or some association of wealthy persons, to purchase all the available fishing grounds within a community and thereby closing it to the fishing public, or permitting them to take all the fish that were in the streams, and I think that is why this provision of the bill is there. Of course it is no argument against the stocking of the stream with fish to say that some unscrupulous person pollutes the stream. If there are not already sufficient laws upon the statute books to prevent the pollution of the streams it is rather the business of this Legislature to enact laws to prevent the pollution of the streams and the destruction of the fish already therein, as well as those to be placed therein under the provisions of this act.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, this bill starts out "entitled an act for the protection of fish." In my judgment that should be changed and entitled "an act for the creation of new jobs." Mr. President, we now have State Police to enforce the general laws of this Commonwealth, and, in my judgment, they do it well. We also have a young army of men parading over this state to enforce the game laws. They dare not have anything to do with the enforcing of the fish laws. Also an act providing for forest wardens. They dare not have anything to do with the enforcing of the fish laws. Now we propose to create a large number of fish wardens who may only enforce the fish laws. Neither of them dare trespass upon the duties of any of the other men who are now no doubt overworked. Mr. President, a few nights ago you sponsored a bill which, in my judgment, would have been a long step forward in that you would have combined the Game Department and Fish Department. We then would have had one license, making a charge for a fisherman's and sportsman's license, including both game and fish, and at the same time our game wardens could have been fish wradens. But that does not suit the people, who are apparently back of this bill, and pushing it through this body because they want new jobs. I have noticed in the years that I have been here that whenever you have a new bill proposed of any sort, or new legislation, you find a young army of men, and women too, sometimes down here urging the passage of the particular legislation, showing us and pointing out to us the advantages that will accrue to us, or the Commonwealth, therefrom, and just as soon as that bill becomes a law you will find those very same lobbyists getting the fat plums out of the bill.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, this is another bill of special class legislation, exempting certain classes of personal property from distress for rent. It seems to me we have enough of different commodities of that class now, and I, therefore, think that this bill be recommitted.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1015, (House Bill No. 1260), entitled:

An Act to provide for the planting and care of shade trees along the streets and highways of cities and providing for the collection of the cost thereof and other costs incidental thereto from the owners of property abutting on such streets and highways

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I want to call the attention of the Senate to this bill. It replaces the present Shade Tree Commissions of the State and gives the same powers that these Shade Tree Commissions now possess to the city council. It does not cure the unconstitutionality now charged against the bill of January 31, 1907, but would abolish the Shade Tree Commissions which are and have been doing good work and I do not believe that the bill is a meritorous bill.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. LONG. Mr. President, the purpose of recommitting these bills is to give the Committee on Education an opportunity to go over them with Mr. Finegan to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock, that is the purpose.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, the purpose of this bill is to display the flag on all public and private school buildings, and I object to it being sent back to committee. I think it is very, very meritorious to display the flag on school buildings and I think that the bill should pass.

Mr. SISSON. Mr. President, just prmit me to say that the occasion for this motion is that none of these bills have been before the committee. They may be meritorious and all right, but it is the first time I have ever known a number of bills to get along for passage, as these have, without having been voted on by the committee. Of course the bill is on second reading to-night and I suggest that it go over and that we take it up for a committee hearing later, to save time, but the bills on third reading have not been referred to committee and I knew nothing about them.

BILLS OVER IN ORDER.

Mr. PHIPPS. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill No. 1394, (House Bill No. 1431), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to regulate the drilling operating and abandoning of oil and gas wells and providing a penalty for violation of the provisions of this act go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BARNES. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill No. 1395, (House Bill No. 1464), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend sections five hundred and eighty-five and five hundred and eighty-seven of an act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and forty), entitled "An act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto"

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. LONG. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1396, (House Bill No. 1514), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section two hundred and seven of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and providing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" as amended be recommitted to the Committee on Education.

Mr. WEAVER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1397, entitled:

An Act providing that persons associations and corporations owning occupying or controlling premises upon which any contractor or sub-contractor shall be permitted to do certain classes of construction work shall be liable for the wages of all employes engaged in such work and for the cost of all materials supplied for such work unless the contractor or sub-contractor shall file a bond for the immediate payment of wages and the cost of material when due providing that a contractor shall be liable for the wages of employes of any sub-contractor and for the cost of materials furnished to any sub-contractor unless such sub-contractor shall file a bond covering the same requiring every such contractor or sub-contractor to file a bond specifying the form and amount of such bond and permitting persons furnishing labor or materials to sue in such bond to recover wages and the cost of such materials

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, as I understand this bill, the man that makes a contract with a contractor is not only responsible to the contractor, but he is responsible to the sub-contractor, and if the man pays his money to the contractor in any way, shape, manner or form and the contractor has a tendency, or is disposed to beat the sub-contractors out of their money, the man who builds the houses is responsible to the sub-contractors, and he is, therefore, paying the bill twice and three times, and it would be an impossibility for a man to get a loan from a bank, or from anybody else, if this bill were to go through. I think that in order to give the Senators a chance to look the bill over it at least ought to go over in its order, or be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. SMITH. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1397, on third reading, entitled:

An Act providing that persons associations and corporations owning occupying or controlling premises upon which any contractor or sub-contractor shall be permitted to do certain classes of construction work shall be liable for the wages of all employes engaged in such work and for the cost of all materials supplied for such work unless the contractor or sub-contractor shall file a bond for the immediate payment of wages and the cost of material when due providing that a contractor shall be liable for the wages of employes of any sub-contractor and for the cost of materials furnished to any sub-contractor unless such sub-contractor shall file a bond covering the same requiring every such contractor or sub-contractor to file a bond specifying the form and amount of such bond and permitting persons furnishing labor or materials to sue in such bond to recover wages and the cost of such materials be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary Special.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING POSTPONED FOR THE PRESENT.

Mr. WEAVER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1037, (House Bill No. 1354), on third reading postponed for the present, entitled:

A Supplement to the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five (Pamphlet Laws one hundred and forty-six) entitled "An act relating to marriage licenses providing for officers herein indicated to issue licenses for parties to marry" imposing an additional license fee for the use of the Commonwealth

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1037, (House Bill No. 1354), entitled:

A Supplement to the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five (Pamphlet Laws one hundred and forty-six) entitled "An act relating to marriage licenses providing for officers herein indicated to issue licenses for parties to marry" imposing an additional license fee for the use of the Commonwealth

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BARNES. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Weaver.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Weaver, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WEAVER. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. JOYCE offered the following resolution; which was twice read:

In the Senate, April 25, 1921.

Whereas, During several sessions of the General Assembly merchants have petitioned for the repeal of the merchantile tax law; and

Whereas, Repeal of the said law has been sought for reasons including the following: That it is a class tax and thereby un-American; that its administration is inequitable; and that in the case of corporations it amounts to double taxation; and

Whereas, It is believed that merchants are willing to pay any honest taxation equitably laid and administered, and,

Whereas, Repeal of the said law is not advisable during the present session of the General Assembly, owing to unusual requirements upon the State for revenue, therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That the Governor shall appoint a commission of nine consisting of three members of the Senate three members of the House of Representatives and three citizens of the Commonwealth to investigate the alleged inequalities of the mercantile tax law and its administration The commission shall make a report with recommendations to the next general session of the General Assembly including such drafts of legislation as it may deem necessary for the consideration of the General Assembly The total expense of this commission shall not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) which shall be provided for by an item in the General Appropriation Bill

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. H. Feldmann, offered the following prayer:

O God, one score and three years ago to-day this nation was called upon to defend its rights and to challenge injustice wherever it was found; and when Columbia called, there reverberated in every hill and over the plans the willing shout of those who would stand by her in every hour of trial. Thou didst in that great day bring forth that noble American, Roosevelt, and Thou didst bring forth that grand man, Dewey; and Thou didst seal in that day the wounds between the North and the South.

But we thank Thee most of all that to-day we stand as Americans, free from hatred, spite, jealousy or prejudice, and every other evil thought toward our fallen foe. O God, make us always conscientious in every cause that we shall enter into, and may we never have the finger of scorn pointed at us for defending that which is unjust; but O God, let there never be a day, if it must come again, where a just cause shall lack a defender in our land, or our nation fall because of faint heart, of cowardice, of self-seeking or of avarice.

Grant unto us that we shall be slow in every action; that we will be able to lay before Thee our full cause and never hesitate when once we are convinced that we are right. Bless our land, and if it be Thy holy will, may we never be called upon to enter into any more wars, but be Thou, our God, O Thou King of the Flood, and keep us in all hours of peace; and then may the home fires burn brightly,—and if Thou art with us the camp fires will never go out if they must burn.

Hear and bless our land. We ask it in Thy name. Amen.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RULES.

Mr. HESS offered a report from the Committee on Rules, which was twice read as follows:

Resolved, That the following bills be made a special order of business at nine thirty o'clock P. M. today, and follow each other in the order named: House Bill No. 864, File Folio 6943; Senate Bill No. 93, File Folio 3937; Senate Bill No. 95, File

A. B. HESS,
J. M. FLYNN,
DUNCAN SINCLAIR,
GEORGE W. WILLIAMS.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee on Rules?

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I am opposed to the adoption of the resolution from the Committee on Rules. We have on the special calendar this evening two very important bills that affect our community. As mentioned in the resolution are placed in the special order calendar, it may bring about the defeat by the call for the order of the day before these bills have been considered by this House, and I believe in fairness to the bills that are now upon the special reading calendar that this resolution——

The SPEAKER. The Chair would state for the information of the gentleman from Lackawanna that the bills to which he refers, having been made a special order before the report of the Rules Committee was offered, would take precedence over the special orders as contained in this report.

Mr. FOWLER. That is satisfactory to me.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, by passing this resolution making these four bills special orders, it would in no way interfere with the Mine Cave Bills which are now fixed as special orders. Among the bills in the report of the Committee on Rules is House Bill No. 864, which is the General Appropriation Bill. The three Senate bills, No. 93, 94 and 95, are the Insurance Code Bills, and are placed in the resolution to be placed on special order at the request of the Insurance Department. I believe in view of this that the House should sustain the report of the Committee on Rules.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I shall ask that you vote down the report of the Rules Committee at this time. We have other business here tonight which is of just as much importance and should be cleared up. I will therefore ask you to vote this down now with the hope that the Rules Committee will present the same resolution sometime tomorrow.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, there is no more important legislation before this House,—and the gentleman from Philadelphia who has just sat down knows it,—than House Bill No. 864. House Bill No. 864, as the gentleman from Lancaster has already stated, is the General Appropriation Bill, and carrying as that does the many millions of dollars, it is the most important legislation and the most important business that this House should attend to. Why the other things that the gentleman from Philadelphia has referred to, and I don't care what they are, are small indeed as compared with the great Appropriation Bill, which carries with it the money which will run this great State for the next two years. Why, gentlemen, we are almost in the last stage of this session; we are almost in the last hours, and I regret very much that a bill as important as this is, as important as the General Appropriation Bill, should have been delayed to within three days before the end of the session. I was in the hopes that sometime ago when I presented a resolution carrying out the recommendation of the committee on the amendment of the Constitution, providing that the general appropriation bill should be in the hands of the Governor fifteen days before the session ended,—I was in the hopes at least that we would have it ten days before the end of the session. But here it is in the very last stages of this session, and today is the last day the bill can be passed and have three separate readings in the Senate even if it goes to the Senate tonight. There it must be referred to a committee, and if it should go to the Senate tomorrow it will have to be referred to a committee, reported out from the committee and read for the first time to pass before the session adjourns.

If it goes to the Senate tonight, it must be referred out of the Committee on Appropriations or if it reaches the committee tomorrow it must be referred then and by unanimous consent read for the first time, in order to have three readings in three consecutive days. I do not know what resolution the gentlemen from Philadelphia alludes to; I do not know what bill or resolution he may have that he is interested in, or if for one political reason or another; I don't know what it may be that he has up his sleeve. I have heard remarks current here today of the fight that would be put on tonight, but I don't know what he has that he thinks is of more importance than the Appropriation Bill, the many millions, about five millions of dollars of the State's funds. I recognize the fact that the gentleman from Philadelphia in every resolution that has been offered in this House toward economy; any resolution or any program which the Senate and the House or any laws of the people or which the Congress or the President of the United States has advocated in every state in the United States, I have recognized the fact that he has looked on all these appropriations as a mere bagatelle that has nothing to do with it. Every raise in salary and every expenditure has been made just the same. The gentleman from Philadelphia has sponsored and advocated for and fought up to the last ditch irrespective of everything else. I recognize the fact that the gentleman from Philadelphia seems to believe that the millions that have been spent by the State of Pennsylvania, amounts to nothing. I believe that every man in this House believes that the most important piece of legislation that is before this body is the Appropriation Bill carrying fifty-five millions of dollars of the State's funds some of which will be money that will go to meet the salary raisers which the gentleman from Philadelphia has sponsored so well and so studiously and so steadily. I ask you now to consider these bills. They are three bills; you remember they are the three Insurance Bills which every man has advocated as being important legislation and especially Bill No. 864 should be made a special order tonight. Because, gentlemen of the House, this is important legislation and I know that you will agree with me that it is the most important legislation that is before this House and I ask you to vote in favor of sustaining this rule.

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House. If the remarks to which we have just listened had come from any other member of the House except one individual who has done more to block the work of this House than any other member of it, it would receive a little more favorable consideration by this House. I wish to call the attention of the House to the fact that a rule was adopted giving appropriation bills priority over all other legislation as soon as the Mine Cave Special Order is dispensed with and then the Appropriation Bill comes up naturally. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of this House, this is only a part of the program of the obstructionists who in the closing hours of this session have gotten together for the purpose of hindering and embarrassing and disturbing in every way the Republican State organization and the State administration. I sincerely hope that you will vote down this report of the Committee on Rules now.

Mr. Speaker, I now move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by the following: Messrs. Baldi, Ehrhardt, Heffernan, Krause, Dilsheimer, Harry J. Smith, Griffith, W. W. Jones, Bell, Allum, Glass, Jefferson W. Smith, Love, McCarthy, Frank B. Brown, Fowler, Marshall, Albert Millar, Schilling, Van Alen, and others.

The SPEAKER. More than twenty members having joined in moving the previous question,

On the question,

Shall the main question now be put?

The Speaker declared, "The vote appears to be about evenly divided."

Whereupon, a division was called for, and one hundred and thirty-four gentlemen, being more than a constitutional majority, voting in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee on Rules?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. James A. Walker and Mr. Glass, and were taken.

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be verified.

The roll was verified as follows:

COMMUNICATION FROM ARCHBISHOP DOUGHERTY.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read a communication from the Archbishop of Philadelphia.

The Clerk read the communication as follows:

Archbishop's House, 1723 Race Street,
Philadelphia, April 21, 1921.

To the Honorable Gentlemen of the House of Representatives and of the Senate of the State of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I have received a copy of the Resolution passed by your Honorable Bodies on April 13th, 1921, in which you had the great courtesy and kindness of tendering me congratulations and good wishes on the occasion of my elevation to the Cardinalate.

One of the chief joys I have in connection with the honor which has come to me, is the expression of good will on the part of my fellow-citizens irrespective of creed.

No manifestation of good will has given me greater pleasure than yours; for apart from your individual standing in the community and your distinction as leading citizens of the Commonwealth, you are our representatives in what concerns our high interests on earth.

I beg you, therefore, to please rest assured of my appreciation and gratitude, and to accept my heartfelt thanks for so signal an honor as that which you have had the goodness of heart to do me.

With sentiments of the highest esteem, I remain, gentlemen,

Very gratefully and devotedly yours,

D. Card. Dougherty, Abp. of Phila.

The SPEAKER. The communication will be spread upon the Journal.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 858.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 858, File Folio No. 4243, entitled:

An Act designating the city treasurer of cities of the third class as the collector of city school poor and county taxes fixing his compensation for collecting such taxes providing for the payment of all fees and commissions for the collection thereof into the city treasury and providing for the appointment and compensation of assistants and clerks in the office of the city treasurer on page 13 of Thursday's calendar, was defeated on final passage be reconsidered.

Mr. ALBERT S. C. MILLAR. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question.

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HORNE. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, this bill came up last Thursday when the House was in somewhat of a hubbub. There was no speech made against it and none for it. I found out afterwards that a small number of men perhaps had done some work against it, but the vote was rather light on both sides. It was defeated however, and quite badly. I ask the privilege of this reconsideration only because I believe a bill when it is reported out of committee, after it has been amended there to please that committee should have a hearing. I regret very much that I did not say something in favor of this bill. Some said it was a bad bill, some one told them so. I would like to call the attention of the House to this bill, state its provisions, and then if you think it is a bad bill I would be pleased to have you vote it down, but I would like to have the courtesy granted me of voting on this bill and for that reason I ask that it be given a reconsideration.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Flynn and Mr. Lafferty were as follows:

So the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HORNE. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I do not wish to consume a large amount of time in stating what I believe to be the purpose of this bill. I do request however, having a hearing on this bill and unless you wish me to extend the time I will try to make it very brief if you will give me the attention I hope for.

This bill was submitted at the suggestion of our city council and mayor to remedy what they believe to be a bad condition in the office for the collection of taxes in our city and which I think in a large measure meets the requirements of other cities of the third class, and this bill affects no other city. It provides for the city treasurer to collect city, school, poor and county taxes to be paid a salary the minimum being $2,000 and the maximum $7,500, to be fixed by city council. The fees and commissions received for the collections of these taxes, that is county, poor and school taxes shall go into the city treasury as part of the city funds. It is my honest opinion that in the state law which fixes that commission at not less than one-half per cent. that this commission would practically pay for the city treasurer.

The reasons for this bill are three. First. Providing for economy by cutting down the amount of taxes to be paid to the city by the tax payer. We have heard a great deal in this session about economy. There have been long speeches here. Really here is one thing that you can carry back to your third class city if you wish, if you are honest about the subject of economy, here is the real place to put it into practice, or you ought to cut out the talk in favor of economy. This would really provide a very simple feature for the collection of taxes in our city. In recent years it has caused us as high as twenty thousand dollars and above for the collection of only the city and the school taxes. So it would cut that down materially and there would be a revenue to the city which it does not now have. Another feature of this bill is that it would make for efficiency. Suppose that a man had property in more than one ward of the city it would be necessary for him to go to these different collecting offices at different wards at different times in order to pay his taxes, and he would have to pay them separately, however, in this case it would all be paid at one point, where they naturally go to pay their city and school taxes. There can be nothing better in this age perhaps than economy and to the average tax payer the matter of efficiency is something too. It would be efficiency to get the collection of taxes under one head, under one collecting office and it certainly can be done much better than it could be in twenty-one places, as in our city where we have twenty-one wards. In this case a man or his wife could go there wherever that place is and that certainly would be in favor of this method of collecting taxes. In our county the county treasurer is paid a definite and fixed salary and it will not deteriorate from that salary. I did not wish to impose upon you at this late day in the session but I felt that it was unfair to this bill which was submitted in good faith and which was amended in the committee at the suggestion of the members of that committee and which had not been properly considered on the floor. I ask you if you vote on this bill that you vote against it unless you feel it would be good for third class cities, and if you vote for it as I hope you will that you do so feeling that it is an honest measure, submitted honestly for an honest purpose and that is the only appeal by which I wish to solicit your votes.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Cambria.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Horne, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HORNE. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I would like the gentleman to tell us how many third class cities he has in his district.

Mr. HORNE. Mr. Speaker, there is one third class city in our county, a city with seventy thousand population.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Isn't it a fact that all the third class cities, and especially the Association of Third Class Cities are opposed to this bill?

Mr. HORNE. I have no such information, and I do not believe the gentleman from Delaware has, either.

Mr. ALEXANDER. This bill was not adopted in any way by that association, was it?

Mr. HORNE. This bill was not submitted in time to be acted upon at their convention.

Mr. ALEXANDER. They have presented at this Legislature a number of bills governing cities of the third class, have they not?

Mr. HORNE. In answer to that, I would say their convention was held before this legislation was presented.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I do not think you understood what I said. They have presented at this Legislature a number of bills governing cities of the third class, have they not?

Mr. HORNE. I might say in answer to that that all that legislation was passed on at York prior to the convening of this Legislature, and had nothing to do with it.

Mr. ALEXANDER. But they do not sponsor this bill in any way?

Mr. HORNE. As I said before, they had no chance to, because it was not submitted to them.

Mr. ALEXANDER. How many third class cities are there in the State?

Mr. HORNE. Thirty-one.

Mr. ALEXANDER. And only one in Cambria county?

Mr. HORNE. That is all.

Mr. ALEXANDER. What city is it, please?

Mr. HORNE. Johnstown.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Now, what does the city treasurer at the present time receive for collecting the school and city taxes?

Mr. HORNE. He has averaged from $11,000 to something over $20,000.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Then, that gentleman, therefore, would receive in addition for collecting the county taxes the sum of $2,000?

Mr. HORNE. There is no such thing in this bill.

Mr. ALEXANDER. That is, for the school tax?

Mr. HORNE. That is not in the bill, that is a misinterpretation.

Mr. ALEXANDER. What does he receive?

Mr. HORNE. Not less than $2,000 nor more than $7,500.

Mr. ALEXANDER. For what purpose?

Mr. HORNE. For receiving all of the taxes. He would receive no other fee or commission.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Do you mean to say that the city treasurer, the treasurer of a city of the third class, whose commission now amounts to $11,000 would, in addition to his duties now of collecting the city and school taxes be obliged to collect the county taxes, and receive only $2,000?

Mr. HORNE. I did not say that. The bill does not provide that. His commission would amount to $7,500.

Mr. ALEXANDER. $7,500 then, would be the maximum?

Mr. HORNE. Yes.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Who would pay that?

Mr. HORNE. The city in which he was treasurer.

Mr. ALEXANDER. In other words, the city would pay for the collecting of the county taxes.

Mr. HORNE. Absolutely. He would receive a fee of not less than one-half of one per cent.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Fowler, will state his question of information.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, since there is another bill on special order at 10:15 P. M., will that throw out my bill?

The SPEAKER. It will not.

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker—

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware has the floor.

Mr. ALEXANDER. As I understand, going back again, when he receives $11,000 for collecting the city and school tax, he has the additional burden of collecting the county tax, and while he receives now the sum of $11,000 for collecting the two taxes, he will receive not more than $7,500 for collecting all the taxes.

Mr. HORNE. Absolutely, and the city would pay for additional help.

Mr. ALEXANDER. You intend by this act to do away with the duly elected tax collectors entirely in the cities of the third class?

Mr. HORNE. In some cities there are no such officers.

Mr. ALEXANDER. In what cities don't you have them?

Mr. HORNE. Altoona is operating under the same system as this.

Mr. ALEXANDER. That is a city of the third class?

Mr. HORNE. Yes.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Under what authority do they act?

Mr. HORNE. They have a city manager.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Do you mean to say then, that there is third class city legislation or an Act of Assembly which permits a city to have such an officer as a city manager?

Mr. HORNE. I am not discussing that subject now, and I will not answer that for I am not sure.

Mr. ALEXANDER. You are not sure of that?

Mr. HORNE. No.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Could any third class city have such an organization?

Mr. HORNE. I suppose so.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Then why could not Cambria county do so if it so desired, when only one out of the thirty-one cities in the State, Johnstown, is located there?

Mr. HORNE. I cannot answer that because the proposition has not been presented.

Mr. CHRISTIAN MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Cambria.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Horne, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HORNE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHRISTIAN MILLER. Mr. Speaker. I would like to ask the gentleman if he did not say that there was no objection from third class cities in reference to this bill?

Mr. HORNE. Mr. Speaker, I did not say so, and I will leave it to the House a witness to that fact.

Mr. CHRISTIAN MILLER. Then, Mr. Speaker, I was laboring under a misapprehension. I represent a third class city, and there are very serious objections to the bill as the bill now is framed. I live close to another third class city that has serious objections to this bill.

Mr. CHAPLIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to say for your information that the city of Johnstown has been paying as high as $22,000 a year to collect the city taxes. This bill provides that the city treasurer might collect all of the taxes, county and all taxes, at one time, instead of having the additional expense of having the taxes collected in the respective wards throughout the city. I know in the past ten or twelve years that we have not paid less than $11,000 a year. The members of this House have been trying economy. This is the place to start economy,—start at home. I think a bill that provides for a salary of from $2,000 to $7,500 a year, and for sufficient help to take care of it, is enough.

I would be glad to have a position which paid me $7,500 a year for four years to handle the money in any city of the third class in this State. I hope the gentlemen of this House will vote for this bill because it is a good bill. There were various stories told on the floor of this House about this bill when it made its appearance and was defeated. The members voted against it becuse they did not know what it contained or they would not have voted against it. I hope you gentlemen will see that this bill is passed.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Chaplin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Chaplin, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CHAPLIN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman how much he said that the treasurer of Johnstown was paid for collecting the taxes.

Mr. CHAPLIN. As high as $22,000.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Doesn't the gentleman from Cambria know that the school board has the right to fix the commission for the collection of the school tax under the School Code?

Mr. CHAPLIN. I am not a lawyer, and do not know anything about it.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Doesn't the gentleman from Cambria know that the commissioners in the cities of the third class have the right to fix the compensation for the collection of city taxes?

Mr. CHAPLIN. It doesn't seem so, or we would not have had such a bill.

Mr. ALEXANDER. For your information, I will say they have that right. You know that the rate is fixed for the collection of county taxes, so the city is within its rights to fix the rate of commission for the collection of taxes. Does the gentleman know that?

Mr. CHAPLIN. That does not seem to be the case in our city.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, the cities of the third class have the right at the present time to fix the commission that is paid and tax collectors have the collecting of the city taxes. The school code, as you all know, provides that the school directors have the right and they do fix the commission for the tax collectors and collect the school taxes. The law is fixed at the present time as to the commission for collecting the county tax, so for any of the cities like Johnstown, for instance, if she desires and their council does not fix the proper rate of interest when the time comes to remove them they can do so. Why should the innocent tax collector, especially in the other thirty cities of the third class where the commissioners have fixed the rate, suffer. I represent one of the cities of the third class, in Chester. They don't get any such sum as the $11,000 and it is a larger city than those mentioned. They don't get any such sum as has been stated here, because the commissioners of the third class cities, and Chester is one of the other thirty third class cities, fixes a reasonable compensation. Why should these thirty innocent tax collectors under the association of thirty third-class cities be removed out of office just by way of passing this bill to satisfy one third-class city, that of Johnstown. I would like to vote for this bill on account of the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Horne; I would like to be with it, but I do not think that it is fair to thirty third-class cities who are not asking for this and who are members of the third-class association, and who came before this Legislature and asked for what they wanted when they met and in their convention went all over all the things that were necessary. Two years ago they recommended a number of bills which were passed in this House which they thought were for better government of the cities of the third class. This bill was not included by any one as sponsor of the association. I say again, therefore, that in order to find out the purpose, and I don't know whether they have any feud in Johnstown or not, in order that something might be remedied that they may have as an evil there,—perhaps they have an extravagant commission which they wish to remedy, because there are extravagances in public affairs sometimes and probably that extends to the city of Johnstown and if it does they have their remedies. That remedy is, to oust the commissioner; oust the men who are not trying to treat the people of Johnstown fairly and squarely and do not oust thirty tax collectors of the boroughs and townships who are constitutionally-appointed officers of this Commonwealth. Yet by this proposed act of Assembly we endeavor here to oust every officer—every constitutionally appointed officer in the thirty third-class districts—and I don't think it is fair.

Mr. HORNE. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House. No man in this House has consumed more time of this House than the gentleman from Delaware, who has just preceded me. The city council of Johnstown is favorable to this act, first of all, and the mayor is favorable to it, so that there is no feud there at all. I do wish to say this: I feel that no third-class city can deny that it will cut the cost of collecting the taxes. This gentleman from Delaware has preached economy and now he wishes to defeat this bill. There is either something wrong with the sermon or there is something wrong with the preacher. I like to be consistent; I have endeavored to be consistent and I have not indulged in camouflage and humbug about it. The purpose of this bill is not to oust somebody; it is to allow him all the help he needs and his salary shall be paid by the city and the tax payers do not pay a delinquent tax collector. When tax payers cannot pay their tax in twenty-one days the tax collector advertises in the newspaper where they shall pay their tax if they are not there in that time and where they are not notified perhaps and if they don't see it in the newspaper, never seeing the notice, they become delinquent tax payers and have to pay ten per cent. more tax owing to this kind of an arrangement. It provides economy to the people and if you wish to provide economy for the people in your city, I ask you to vote for it; if not, you can vote against it.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Cambria?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Horne, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HORNE. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I would like to ask the gentleman, when was your Treasurer elected?

Mr. HORNE. About two years ago; it does not affect his election or term.

Mr. ALEXANDER. His term expires when?

Mr. HORNE. About two years hence, I believe.

Mr. ALEXANDER. He is elected for four years?

Mr. HORNE. Yes, sir, and it does not affect his term at all. I am on good terms with him and have helped to elect him.

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by the following: Messrs. Jeremiah Miller, Dunn, Krause, Sowers, Heffernan, Schwartz, Golder, Baldi, J. A. Walker, Vickerman, McVicar, Drinkhouse, Aston, Geo. T. Walker, Haws, Jefferson W. Smith, Howard Smith, Franklin, Davis, Burns, Sterling, McCaig and others.

The SPEAKER. More than twenty members having joined in moving the previous question.

On the question,

Shall the main question now be put?

BILL ON THIRD READING (SPECIAL ORDER).

The SPEAKER. The hour of 10 o'clock having arrived, the Chair lays before the House as a Special Order, House Bill No. 1156, File Folio 5345, on third reading and final passage.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1156, entitled:

An Act affecting Anthracite Coal Mines and Operations establishing the Pennsylvania State Anthracite Mine Cave Commission defining its jurisdiction and powers imposing duties upon owners and operators of anthracite coal mines and imposing penalties

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House. This Bill, No. 1156, deals with the mine question in the anthracite coal fields in this State. I wish to state that the forces behind the bill are all of the churches, all of the organizations, councils, the mayor, and labor organizations as well as every fraternal association—they are all back of this bill. As I have said here on another occasion, for several sessions of the Legislature we have come before the Legislature with some form of a bill bearing on this question, only to find that we were to go home and re-study the question and try and bring a bill before the House of Representatives that would be satisfactory to all concerned. We believe at this time, after the expenditure of much money and the taking up of much time that has been consumed, that we now have a measure that will meet with the approval of this House in its work here for the purpose of bringing about an intelligent and satisfactory discussion bearing on the anthracite coal industry. We are here to prove that this bill, if it is passed, will be of benefit to the anthracite coal industry; and we will show to you, conclusively, that they will produce more coal than they have produced before the enactment of this bill. You might say that Bill No 1156 creates a commission of three men picked by the Governor of this State and that they are men who are responsible for the work which they have to do. A two per cent. tax will be charged on all market sold coal. I will say to you, in all fairness, that if we saw fit and we did see fit to pass an anthracite tax law in this Legislature last week, for the benefit of the State, and our people at home did not share in that profit, and now let me say to you that if it is fair to raise taxes for the benefit of the State in order to raise revenue, I say it is only fair that a tax should be raised on the anthracite industry to take care of the properties and to safeguard the lives of those in that industry—in or about that industry.

This act is not forcing on any of the coal operators. It merely provides a way in which they can voluntarily come in under the act, where they can pay in the money into the commission. The commission itself can go and ascertain by the maps of the territories the coal that can be mined there and they can ascertain the territories where the coal can be mined successfully. Let me say to you that under the present method of mining in the anthracite coal fields that they are now attempting to save the surface by placing timber in those veins. We all realize that the timber question is a great item in the mining industry of to-day. By the permission of this commission on the mine cave question they can mine out certain territory fully, be able to mine with very many less props and cave down the entire surface and the commission then can use the money to rebuild the properties in that region.

The question has been raised by various men throughout the bituminous fields that this would perhaps affect them. Let me say to you that I feel that the bituminous operators need have no fear of ever being forced under this act. In the first place the bituminous coal fields of this State have but one or two veins of coal and they only range from four to six feet in height. They are perhaps one hundred feet below the surface and a cave in a mine of that kind would not amount to much on the surface. But there are places in the city of Scranton and in the mine cave zone where you have seen these pictures where they have ten veins of coal approximating in depth seventy-five feet of coal. So you can see that when they have mined one vein they come back and remine and remine continually and cave the properties the first, second and third time. This act would not affect the right to go in and properly mine the coal, and I predict here that if this act would be put into effect that the coal companies would save money on this proposition. The other bill, of course, will be explained by the sponsor of that bill. Let me say to you that you have had on your desks this evening copies of the pictures of the buildings that have been destroyed. I have sitting here with me Congressman Farr of my district who was speaker of this House at one time and you can see there the picture of Congressman Farr's property which has been destroyed at a loss of over $25,000 to the Congressman. You can see here the coffin of an old woman which was exposed in the Cathedral Cemetery in Scranton. Why my friends, we find that the people of Scranton have gone down into the mines, they have mined coal for ten years, yes, twenty and fifty years, and gathered a little money to build themselves a home and in their old days they find that home crushed down to the earth, and we find Mary and John going over the hills to the poor farm. Then after we lay them to rest in the cemetery, we do not allow them to rest. Then there is the case of young Warburton, a young boy under eleven years of age who while he was playing in the yard, playing there with a lot of other little boys, the ground suddenly gave away and down went that little body into the coal mines. Friends can you imagine the agony of that father and mother? I say to you in all fairness to those who have charge of the coal companies that those men did not do that wilfully and neither would they and if they were brought on trial I say to you that if every superintendent or general manager was permitted to have his own way in the anthracite fields, he would say to you in all fairness pass this meritorious legislation. I want to say to you my friends, on the other hand, that you have taxed other people, taxed various industries inside of our State. We have in the anthracite coal industry the majority of the stockholders who are foreigners to our State. They are men living on the outside of our State, and I say to you in all fairness that a part of this money should be sent back into the anthracite fields for the purpose of protecting life and property.

I feel that it is not necessary for me to speak at length on this bill as the time is growing short and many of you are interested in other legislation, but let me just for a moment quote to you what the Governor said to you as found on page 34 of the House Journal, what the Governor of this State said at the opening of this session:

"We have a great problem to meet in all of our coal mining districts, and especially in the anthracite region, in making provision against the depletion of the coal areas, in guarding against present and future dangers incident to the industry, and making reparation of damage to public and private property, to the communities and to the whole prospect of life there. The same situation is becoming more apparent in the bituminous fields. We cannot longer sit here in snug indifference to our responsibilities as officials and as citizens. The men and women of another generation will wonder what sort of folks lived in this State in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, as they contemplate deserted and ruined cities, abandoned industries and a desolate wilderness where once were teeming communities, and realize that a little foresight might have saved, or at least mitigated such conditions."

Gentlemen those are the words of the Governor of this State and he is desirous to have legislation passed in this House for the protection of life and property in the anthracite coal fields. Gentlemen, I am not of a legal term of mind, but let me just say to you that it needs no explanation upon the floor of this House, it needs no debate. I only ask you that you look over this little book and there see the destruction of millions of dollars worth of property, and I ask you that when you are casting your vote to-night to keep your eye on that little casket keep in mind the little boy that lost his life and vote "aye." May I ask you to-night gentlemen, to give a unanimous vote of "aye" on this very meritorious measure.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, this bill was not prepared by the Executive of this State nor had he anything to do with its preparation. The bill has a charitable impulse but beyond the mere impulse this bill has in it that which I doubt if any member of this House would care to support on analysis. Reference has been made tonight to consider the pictures which have been presented to us. I have been advised that the damage which you see there depicted was all remedied under an agreement which exists in Scranton between a commission of the people and the companies. Therefore, we may take it, if I am correctly informed, that the damage has been repaired. This bill goes further than any bill that I have every seen in my three sessions in this House. It provides for a tax of two per cent upon all coal prepared for market. That tax should produce about $24,000,000 above the tax which has already passed the House, and is now in the Senate.

That tax, when collected, does not go into the State treasury. It is paid to the three commissioners provided for in this act. They are to receive $8,000 per annum each, and they are to employ of their own volition without the necessity of seeing anybody about it or of consulting the Governor or having the appointments approved by the Senate, such clerks, secretaries, engineers and anybody else whom they think necessary to build a tremendous machine. They are to be paid as the commission decides, not as the General Assembly decides, not as the Governor or Senate decides, but as they decide. And then later on in this bill you will find reference to the Public Service Commission, but this plan differs from that in that that commission has to come to this Legislature before it can pay one cent and all the money which they have comes from the State Treasurer upon proper vouchers of the Attorney General. They can, as I said before, have whatever officers they see fit. This bill has also a queer reference relative to reparations. It provides that the commissioners, clerks, secretaries, stenographers, engineers, mining experts and the many others of the great machine contemplated shall first be paid. Then, after that, if anything is left, it may start in and pay those who have been damaged. But where can it pay under this bill, and to whom can it be paid? Less than twenty-five per cent of the inhabitants of the coal region because these people, when they buy their houses or the land above the mines, enter into an agreement with the coal companies and waive damages, and this bill cannot change that agreement. Therefore, this great big scheme of taxing the whole people for the benefit of the coal regions will be used for about twenty to twenty-five per cent of all the people in the coal regions. Why do not these people up there take advantage of the decision of the Supreme Court known as the "third estate decision" and for three-fifths of one per cent of their assessed valuation, buy the underlying coal which will support them? Why do they ask you and me, coming from other sections, to stand this terrible cost, because it means under this bill that all the coal will be taxed to take charge of that tax, will be passed on to the prepared sizes, and we people in the cities and you people in the rural districts, if you use anthracite coal, will be compelled to pay a tax which will probably amount to fifty cents a ton on every ton of coal that you buy. And for what? So that four per cent of the people of Scranton and less than twenty-five per cent of the people in the whole anthracite coal district might be permitted to build up a great big machine with officers and clerks and high-salaried men. The Governor's bill, which was passed the other day, was reduced from two per cent to one and one-half per cent, and that was reduced because the Governor believed that the tax should be as reasonable as possible in order that those great schemes that we have of education and forestry and welfare and other things might be put through. But here is a bill which relates solely to the coal district, and because of the laxities in the bill and because the gentleman from Lackawanna introduced another bill into this House which was passed and sent to the Senate, I would ask the gentlemen of this House to vote "No" on this bill.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I was very glad to hear the gentleman come out and defend the good old taxpayers of this State. It is the first time he has had them in mind this session. You say that they have remedied this, that the company has remedied this to a certain extent by rebuilding the houses. That is not a true statement. On some properties under five thousand dollars they have done that, but on buildings costing more than five thousand dollars they have absolutely refused to touch them. The gentleman says that there is going to be a tremendous cost and it is going to build up a wonderful machine. I say that if it will save life and property, let us build the machine. Perhaps he feels that we cannot build a political machine out of it. I want to say to you that in all fairness to the people of that field that this tax should be paid by the coal companies. Supposing we did go under the drastic laws of this State; supposing we would enforce the laws as they are now; supposing we would shut down every colliery in the coal fields where caves are taking place and where lives are in danger; supposing they did mine the coal underneath the schoolhouses where you are forcing us to send our children without giving them protection; suppose we take the law as it is now; suppose we took the law in our own hands as the mayor did and call upon the police powers to close down the industry, and it has been idle I presume, for over six months, then we would find the gentleman who has taken to heart the good people, crying for coal, yelling for the coal miners and everybody employed in the industry to return to the coal mines, that you wanted coal? You want us to live there where, when we go to our beds at night, we do not come out alive in the morning. I say to you there are no technicalities in this act. If you feel that this commission is not properly tied or fastened; if you feel that the Governor cannot choose three honest men in this State, vote this bill down, but I say to you if in this act you want to fasten the commission by bonding them, we will agree to that point and see that this bill is amended in the Senate if you so desire.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, This is a matter for very serious consideration. Ever since I have been a member of this House, this mine cave proposition has been a very grave question for the House. Year after year and session after session train loads of the good people of Scranton have come down here and told us of the injury that is being done, and that they are not being properly protected. During this session they have sent every member of this House photographs taken from actual incidences, where graves have fallen in, where caskets have been disinterred, where churches and houses have fallen down, so I say again that this bill should receive our very careful consideration. In the bill it is optional whether an operator comes in under the provisions of this bill or not. They can come in if they want to, or stay out if they want to. This is a practical and real method of taking care of this situation.

It is practically a home rule measure, taking care of this situation that menaced these people all these years and I trust the House will vote "aye" on this bill and pass it.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, the remarks of the gentleman from Lancaster absolutely show that the bill is futile. He says it ought to pass because it is a home rule measure; because any mining company that wishes can come in and they don't want to begin that and then stay out. If they did so, what is the use of the bill. Furthermore, if this bill became a law, what use would there be in an agreement existing between the parties in Scranton who mined the coal and the parties who live on the surface above the mines. The gentleman from Lackawanna stated it correctly, that the present agreement as existed to properties of perhaps five thousand dollars in value and under. You take that group of pictures that we saw tonight and figure out the real estate value, and the values of properties there, if they were valued at five thousand dollars, why real estate in Scranton would be equal to New York values. If the remarks of the gentleman from Lancaster are correct, you can easily see that every coal company will stay out, for none of them are anxious to go into any agreement to tax their coal. I heard last week from a man in the mine region that the people up there don't want any tax on coal and that therefore they ought not to want this agreement.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I certainly am glad to hear the gentleman from Philadelphia take an interest in an economic problem. This is the first time that I have even heard him make a plea for economy throughout the whole session. I am sorry at this time that he has not branched out in the line of economy for the saving of human lives. He is now criticising this program because, as he says or claims, it is a building up of a great machine. This bill is to be treated exactly on the same basis as the Workmen's Compensation Act, which my friend from Philadelphia so loudly applauded, asking that his friend, Mackey, the Chairman of the Workmen's Compensation Board, should have his salary raised because it is such a grand thing. Gentleman of the House, there is an old saying, "When the devil was sick, the devil a monk would be; when the devil was well, a devil of a monk was he." It just depends upon which ox is being gored. There has not been any act, as far as I can see, proposed here in this Legislature that has had a nobler purpose than this, whether it result in the building up of a machine or not, or whatever it is that may inadvertently result from it, there is no nobler purpose than that which is intended to save life, and to improve conditions, be progressive and do that which is of benefit to the State and the nation; doing everything we can to save human life from the time the child is born until the body is laid away at rest in the cemetery. This bill, as I see it, is only carrying out that spirit, in order that some protection may be given to human life in the anthracite coal regions. I ask you in all fairness to vote "aye" on this bill.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I would like to say a word or two on the question how before the House. Scranton is not the only place that has been seriously affected by the mine-cave situation. The County of Luzerne, the third largest county in the State, has been very seriously affected. The city of Wilkes-Barre is now beginning to face this problem. There is caving in, and they are beginning to be felt, in the outskirts of the city and in the section where I live, Plymouth, not far away from there it has been seriously affected, where a large area of the town has subsided two and a half to three feet; in Edwardsville and Larkesville there is serious depression and in one of the places the buildings on a main street are leaning like the tower of Pisa. The miners' homes on that whole street are sinking down and they are being destroyed and people have no place to go. The community which is represented by the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. McHugh, is similarly affected; the section represented by the gentleman from the fourth district of Luzerne, Mr. Roman, is similarly affected in the district of Nanticoke, and there are many other large communities which are seriously affected. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Walker, has said these men living there have accepted those deeds and in that agreement they have bound themselves or agreed not to ask for any damages to the surface because of the removal of mineral beneath, but there is a moral obligation to the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. In France and in Belgium, when those countries were being destroyed and in order to protect them the armies of the United States of America went over there and they helped to see that those homes are reclaimed to their owners in asking Germany to pay for the homes they destroyed. Gentleman, if you feel that the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania should have their homes protected, the people who own their own homes, I ask you, gentleman of the House, to vote for this bill.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I am not going to detain you with any speech for the purpose of talking or taking up the time of this House, as I believe other members have done; or for the purpose of trying to get votes. I shall vote for this bill because I think it is a fair measure. I think the people who are living there are entitled to relief. I ask every member of this House to vote "aye" on this bill.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Lackawanna.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Fowler, permit himself ot be interrogated?

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Lackawanna, is it not a fact that the coal tax bill that passed this House provides that fifty per cent. of the tax collected shall go back to the several cities and boroughs and townships from which said tax is derived?

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, no, sir, it does not provide that as I understood it.

Mr. BOLARD. The point that I had in mind was this very fact that the bill that we passed just a few days ago and which is now in the Senate provides just as I read in this bill that was considered for a two and one half per cent tax which was reduced to one and one-half per cent and then provides where this tax was to go as follows: "Fifty per centum of the same to the construction, maintenance and repair of State Highways and the remaining fifty per centum to the several cities, boroughs, and townships from which the said tax is derived." If that is the case, gentlemen of the House, is it not a fact that you now have provided for one half of this tax of one and one half per cent to go back to the particular location where the mining has occurred and where this damage will take place. This tax after going through the proper public channel can be used for the alleviation of this trouble. It seems to me, gentlemen of the House, that we have already provided for this in a way, and that the bill which is now before us is providing for the handling of an immense amount of money, that is practically public money without its coming into the State treasury, or without being accounted for in the proper way. I have no objection, in fact I am in favor of any attempt to protect property from damage that may come about by reason of any condition beyond the control of the owner of the property.

Mr. DAWSON. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Bolard, I wish to inform him that he probably has before him the bill which I introduced in 1915 which had that particular provision. The bill as introduced by Representative Williams of Tioga and which passed this House and is now in the Senate does not have any such provision.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, may I just reply to that.

Mr. DAWSON. That is for the Speaker to say.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, just in reply to the remarks there, I would like to say I have before me House Bill No. 1287 introduced by Mr. Williams on March 30, 1921, and which went through the House last week.

Mr. DAWSON. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman from Crawford to read the title of the bill.

Mr. BOLARD. "Imposing a state tax on anthracite coal, providing for the assessment and collection thereof and providing penalties for the violation of this act."

Mr. DAWSON. Mr. Speaker, I wish to inform the gentleman that he is very much mistaken. That bill made apparently no provision for the anthracite region and when I took the matter up with His Excellency the Governor and asked him for permission to insert a certain amendment to take care of the people of the anthracite region he declared that that particular point was raised as a constitutional objection. I then suggested that we have a companion bill, he said the intent will be apparent and the bill will be declared unconstitutional. We then passed a bill providing for an amendment to the Constitution introduced by my colleague Mr. Kohler of Lackawanna which eventually will permit us to take a part of this particular tax for the use of private purposes in our particular region, but this bill as passed does not dedicate any funds to the counties from which the coal is mined.

Mr. GIBBON. Mr. Speaker, I cannot understand for a minute why there should be any opposition to this measure. A few days ago this House almost unanimously passed a measure that would tax the anthracite region for the good of the entire State without having any regard for the people of the anthracite region.

It was pointed out to us that our natural resources were fast fading away and that it would only be a short time before the natural resources of our State would have faded away completely, but when these arguments were used in favor of this tax it was not pointed out or suggested how the people of the anthracite region were to be taken care of after the coal of the anthracite region was diminished. Now I ask my friends why this measure should not be passed; why we should not impose a tax upon the users of anthracite coal for the protection of life and property in the anthracite region after the coal has been exhausted and we know the anthracite region is very, very much different from any other region of the State where there are natural resources and where we depend upon our natural resources, and I ask my friends why we should not impose a tax upon the users of anthracite coal to take care of the people in the anthracite section. I ask every member in this House to vote in favor of this measure.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Bolard, read the section to which he referred as providing a division of the anthracite tax between the State and the municipality.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, the section I referred to is section 5. I find that this section repeals, a former act and the quotation that I read is contained in that act and therfore does not apply.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—1.

Walker, J. A.,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

BILL ON THIRD READING (SPECIAL ORDER).

The SPEAKER. The Chair will now take up the special order on third reading and final passage fixed for 10.15 P.M. on House Bill No. 1157.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1157, entitled:

An Act regulating the mining of anthracite coal prescribing duties for certain municipal officers and imposing penalties

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. KOHLER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House. House Bill No. 1157, the bill which is now before you is a companion bill to the bill which you have just voted favorably upon. Briefly I will discuss with you the provisions of this act. In the first place this act is purely a regulatory measure, and provides first that it shall be unlawful to mine coal so as to cause the collapse, or cave in, or subsidence of, first any public buildings such as a church, theatre, hospital, etc., or to cause the collapse or cavein of any private house, or any roadway, public highway or any passage dedicated for public use. It also provides that it shall be unlawful to so mine coal so as to cause the cave in of a burial ground.

In the second place, it provides that there shall be filed in the Commissioner's office where the mine is located in boroughs and townships of the first class maps which shall show the workings of the mines under the surface. Also these maps shall show the mining contemplated within the next six months. In the third place this act provides that it is necessary to file in the same office as I have mentioned before, maps showing the pillars underlying the surface. Each pillar is to be numbered to correspond to the pillar as it lies underneath the surface. It provides for the marking of the pillars. In the fourth place it provides that the mayor, burgess, township commissioners or engineers might at all reasonable times have the right of access to any of the mining operations. In the fifth place it provides that the mayor or burgess might have the power to restrain mining when these maps are not filed or when the mining is being carried on contrary to the provisions of this act. The provisions of this act do not apply to unseated lands or townships of the second class. The bill provides other things, but I do not want to take up your time with the minor details, but with just the important features of this bill. I do not know whether the Governor had this particular bill in mind, or a similar one when he stated in his message that "men and women of another generation will wonder what sort of folks lived in this state in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, as they contemplate deserted and ruined cities, abandoned industries and a desolute wilderness where once were teeming communities, and realize that a little foresight might have saved, or at least mitigated, such conditions". Gentlemen, those are the words our Governor stated here in this House, and this act, I submit to you, embraces those sentiments. The opposition contend that this bill is purely local, and I must admit that it is local insofar as it pertains to the anthracite coal regions. But gentlemen, is it reasonable to deny us relief because this happens to be of a local nature. However, a great deal of the time of this session has been taken up with legislation relating to Philadelphia. I am not saying that there was too much time because communities of that size necessarily need a large portion of our time, but when we ask you to do this for us, I hope our request will be granted. The opposition also states that our deeds provide that the companies have been released from liability. Now, gentlemen, that is not entirely true. In order to understand the contracts of that time, it is necessary to know a little bit of the mining industry at that time. When these deeds were entered into it was the understanding that the companies would remove only two-thirds of the coal, leaving one-third of the coal underlying the surface. Since that time gentlemen, the coal companies have succeeded in removing one hundred per cent. At the time when these deeds were entered into it was with the understanding that two-thirds of the coal would be left in, but they have disregarded that and in some instances one hundred per cent of the coal has been removed. Now, gentlemen, these are the real circumstances in our coal regions. We do not want to keep all of the coal under the surface. We want every ton of that coal removed that can be safely removed, but we want the coal companies to take care when it removes this coal that it does not destroy the rights of the property owner on the surface. They speak of a possible conflict with other laws, as not provided in this special act; they say our deeds are against us, but I want to submit to you gentlemen of the House, that there is no law strong enough or any statute broad enough to permit any person to take the life or property of another. The hour is growing late, gentlemen, and I realize that you have had enough discussion on this bill. I therefore ask you to vote "aye" on this measure.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, the Committee on Mines and Mining gave very careful consideration to the Fowler and Kohler bills. No other piece of legislation was referred to that committee which was analyzed as carefully as these two mine cave bills. After very careful deliberation, the committee decided to report both of these bills with an affirmative recommendation, and it is my opinion and my request that, now that we have passed the Fowler bill, that we should also pass the Kohler bill and let them both stand on equal footing.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RULES.

Mr. HESS offered a report from the Committee on Rules which was twice read as follows: Resolved, That appropriation bills be made a special order at this hour, and that they be taken up in their order on the calendar.

A. B. HESS.
J. M. FLYNN.
DUNCAN SINCLAIR.
GEORGE W. WILLIAMS.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee on Rules?

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, this report of the Committee on Rules includes among the many other appropriation bills on the calendar the General Appropriation Bill, carrying with it an appropriation of $55,000,000. Now, every member of this House knows that that bill ought to pass this House tonight, go to the Senate and receive its first reading to-morrow, its second reading on Wednesday and its third reading on Thursday. This report from the Committee on Rules ought to pass, because it will advance every one of these appropriation bills on the calendar, and I therefore ask the House to vote in favor of this report of the Committee on Rules.

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I very heartily agree with the remarks which have just been made. If there is one important bill which remains on the calendar, it is the General Appropriation Bill, and it is important to know what the General Appropriation Bill provides for. In its title it says:

"To provide for the ordinary expenses of the Executive Judicial and Legislative Departments of the Commonwealth interest on the public debt and the support of the public schools for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one and for the payment of bills incurred and remaining unpaid at the close of the fiscal year ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one"

In this bill are the appropriations for the two years beginning June 1st, 1921, including the Executive Department, the Secretary of the Commonwealth, the Auditor General's office, the Attorney-General's Department, the Banking Department, the Department of Public Instruction, the Forestry Department, the State Police, the Public Service Commission, the Board of Public Charities, the Judges of the Supreme and Superior Courts and the various Orphans Courts and Common Pleas Courts of the Commonwealth, and the Legislative Department of the government. $55,000,000 is the sum that is appropriated in this General Appropriation Bill and it ought to receive consideration. We are now in the closing days of the session; it is nearly twelve o'clock on Monday night of this week and we have only three more legislative days before us. I submit, regardless of what your opinion may be on every other question, that we ought to put this bill on the calendar now by voting for it and take these things up in proper order.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, this motion does not open the proposition referred to by the gentleman from Allegheny who speaks of putting the Appropriation Bill on third reading. I submit that you can well afford to let that go over until to-morrow, and I ask you to vote this motion down.

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lancaster.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Lancaster, does this report from the Committee on Rules include the General Appropriation Bill, of which I have read the title?

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, it does.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I submit that if this motion is voted down it simply means that the members of this House are deliberately seeking to extend the time of adjournment which has been fixed for the twenty-eighth of this month.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Elk?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Flynn, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Elk whether he is not familiar with the rule passed by the committee to the effect that all bills passed by the Senate will have ample time to be passed by the House?

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I understand that, but look at the time now.

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker, I again want to call attention to the fact that this bill will be passed to-morrow; if it is not, then the enemies and the foes of the present administration must accept the responsibility for its defeat. Referring to the remarks of the gentleman from Delaware who has said very truly, and while differing with him on his position taken with many of the measures put before this House, I admire him for his courage for being consistent in his opposition and he has told you gentlemen that you did not come to his support at a former time but waited until within a few hours of the closing time of this session and started to filibuster in order to oppose the program of the administration. You are familiar with the rule adopted by the Senate and House that bills that are reported out shall be read for the first time on the same day and there will be ample time to pass the General Appropriation Bill, and if it fails or if this motion is not voted down, the responsibility will rest on you who now are seeking to pass this motion presented by the Chairman of the Committee on Rules. I ask you in support of the administration and the Republican organization to vote this motion down.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, how can the gentleman from Allegheny prove to you that if the passage of the Appropriation Bill is delayed until after to-morrow, the responsibility for its defeat rests with those who want to pass it now. Is there anything in the attitude of the gentleman in the past to give us the benefit of that blame? Now, the bill is reported out of committee to-night and is passed on first reading; it is put on second reading on Tuesday and on third reading on Wednesday and the Conference Committee will be working on it on Thursday. Every gentleman in this House knows that when it comes to the closing hours of the session the General Appropriation Bill means a day's hard work on the last day of that session up to the small hours of the night in Conference Committee. I leave it up to your judgment as to who is responsible for the defeat of this bill, if you refuse to consider it now.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I don't understand this argument. Each man standing here and charging the other fellow with filibustering. I cannot understand the gentleman from Allegheny and why he does not want to pass on this General Appropriation Bill now? Surely we have waited long enough; surely we have patiently waited, week in and week out, hoping that it would be presented to us so that we could know and be in a position to act intelligently and in an intelligent way get over it. It was reported out by the Committee on Appropriations on the very last minute almost of the last week; we could not get a printed copy of it until we arrived here to-day. When we came here, as soon as I knew when we were to take up the Appropriation Bill. I read over it. I don't know whether the gentleman from Allegheny has looked at it or not, but if he will take it up and look at it, he will find that it is a new bill entirely. There have been written in it some changes and some salary-raisers, and as my friend the gentleman from Philadelphia said. There is here also about forty thousand dollars and that is for the Workmen's Compensation Bill. The gentleman from Philadelphia told us how important it was to have a man look after the bonds of this Commonwealth and make a large expenditure where a man, a clerk, in the office of the Treasurer has been doing it very successfully for years. All he needs to do is to lock them up in an iron safe and go upon his vacation. Now the man who is to take this office as the gentleman from Philadelphia so strongly advocates, we find that that carries with it about fifty-six thousand dollars rather than the amount that it previously cost. I ask you now is it important? Is it important that a piece of legislation like this that carries with it the amount of money, that is brought out here and read the first time and read the second time in a perfunctory kind of a way should be passed at this time that carries with it fifty-five thousand dollars—fifty-five million, excuse me, I was getting down into my own realm, gentlemen, where I am use to talking, money which is running into the millions, I want to know if that is not important enough for us to take it up and digest it and give it all the time we possibly can and see if we cannot cut it down a little bit, see if we cannot put a damper on it because I understand the Governor has every one of these salary raisers on his desk and he is contemplating whether he will veto them or not. I think this House still has a chance to retract the things which it has done in the past, to retract the extravagance which we have heard so much of, to take back some of the things we have done and put in appropriate figures, because we have been told that the salary raisers carried with them sixteen thousand dollars, and when you look them up you will find that it is forty-six thousand dollars for taking care of the bonds of the Commonwealth by the gentleman who can lock them up in the safe and go to Atlantic City and have his check sent to him at the end of the month. I say the time is coming, and the time is here now for you gentlemen to seriously consider this important piece of legislation. I want to see something done with this piece of legislation to get it in proper shape before we adjourn here if it is possible and I ask you to vote for this rule.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Dithrich.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Dithrich, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, what administration told him we should not vote for the support of the Rules Committee in their report.

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman had been paying any attention to my remarks he would know that I did not say the administration asked me to vote against this report, and I want to make it perfectly plain that the administration has not asked me to do it.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I would further like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny. I would ask him what Republican organization is opposed to supporting the Rules Committee in their report.

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker, I did not say that the State Republican organization was opposed to the adoption of this rule.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, the time has come when we country members are feeling that we want to go home, and every time a measure of this kind comes up the argument is produced on the floor of this House that the administration is back of it. I do not believe that any administration or any Republican organization has ever come to any of us and said that we should go back on the Rules Committee when they are trying to push this work forward. This Rules Committee was appointed by this House and they are vitally interested in the passage of these bills, especially measures that are of interest to all of us and I think we should support them and get through with this legislation and go home.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I do not see why we should get excited over the passage of this bill. We have not worked so hard this evening and I think there are a couple hours of good work left for us. We will read the Appropriation Bill on third reading in its turn, and I ask you to vote against the resolution.

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Lancaster, the Chairman of the Rules Committee.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker, when the gentleman offered his resolution which was read from the Rules Committee, may I ask if that was signed by the individual members of the Rules Committee?

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, it was.

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker, may I ask when the Rules Committee met?

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, a few minutes ago.

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker, may I ask how many of the Rules Committee signed that report?

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, four.

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker, may I ask if the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Dawson, a member of the Rules Committee, signed that resolution.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, he did not.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Lancaster, whether the Committee on Rules asked and obtained leave from the House to sit while the House was in session.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, we did not.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, under those circumstances, I do not see any reason why this House should recognize for an instance the report of the Rules Committee, meeting at a clandestine hour, contrary to the Rules of this House, without excuse, and it seems to me we should not put our seal of approval on any such action, and the best way to do it is to vote this resolution down.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will state in behalf of the Committee on Rules, that the Committee is a committee of only five members, and of course is not governed by the same kind of deliberation that the ordinary committee is.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I wish to correct a statement that I made in an interrogation. The Rules Committee met this evening at eight o'clock and this matter was decided upon at that time, and action was taken but the actual signing was done within the last three quarters of an hour, but the action was taken prior to the signing of the report.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee on Rules.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Alexander and Mr Edmonds, and were as follows:

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, I have not had an opportunity to read the bill, and I want to ask the Senator whether it has been amended, whether the license fees for trucks provided for in the bill have been changed?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, they have. Yesterday afternoon we had a two-hour conference, which was attended by approximately thirty men from all over the state of Pennsylvania,, representing the various truck industries, and these amendments that are now in the bill are the result of that conference.

Mr. President, I want to say further that those men all agreed to the bill, agreed to go out and support it, and the bill is also being supported by the Motors Federation and the larger Automobile Clubs all through the state. I know of no objection, have heard of none, to the bill as it reads this morning, and I would say further that by advertisements appearing in the papers of the state the bill is supported and the Senate and the members of the House are requested to support it, and the public at large are requested to communicate with their Senators and members with that end in view.

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, I understand the Senator to say then that the bill as amended is satisfactory to the Motor Association?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, yes, it is.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I want to ask the Senator whether in Senate Bill No. 612 there has not been incorporated House Bill No. 377, and this substituted for it?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I do not think that the numbers are correct, but I will say that the principal features of this bill appear by way of amendments to it, which were inserted in the Senate Committee on Public Roads and Highways.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator whether he recognizes it as a revenue bill or not a revenue bill?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, it is not a revenue bill, I take it, it is a license fee charge. Even if it were, the bill that we are now considering is a House bill. I know of no reason why a revenue bill may not be amended in the Senate.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I want to ask the Senator whether the original House Bill was a revenue bill?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the original bill is an amendment of the Motor Code of 1919, which, like the present bill was not a revenue bill, but was a license bill.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, did it not pertain to a question of speed of trucks, the location of truck drivers in communities in the State of Pennsylvania, as a matter of precaution?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, does the Senator mean the present bill?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, the original bill, that came up in the House, as the Woodruff Bill.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the Woodruff Bill simply provided an amendment to the act of 1919 providing that wherever there were fifteen mile signs in places not built up, that those signs should contain the name of the town in which the signs were located.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, is there a single word or paragraph in the bill that pertains to the question of any tax, or any license?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, there was not.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, therefore I contend that this was a revenue bill, and it did not originate as a revenue bill. One other thing; I ask the Senator where did you amend the title of bill No. 367?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I do not think the title was changed.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr President, I want to differ with the Senator, it is shown by the fact of the addition to the title of the bill on the Calendar.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, there is no change made in the wording of the title.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, was there any addition made?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the bill will have to speak for itself on that.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, where was the change made?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I do not know that there was any change made.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, the Senator is the author of the bill and he ought to be in a position to inform the Senate as to whether there were any changes made.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I think that there has been an addition made to the title, where it was made I do not know.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, was it made on the floor of the Senate?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I do not know.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, was it made in committee?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I do not know.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, my objection to this bill is from the protests of the business interests of the city of Pittsburgh, I received about two hundred telegrams and that many letters. The business interests of the city of Pittsburgh practically have eliminated the question of horse power to conduct their business with in the confines of the city of Pittsburgh. Trucks have displaced the vehicle traffic of horses. It is no exaggeration to say to this Senate that ninety per cent. of these trucks used for business purposes in the city of Pittsburgh never go outside of the confines of the city of Pittsburgh. They never traverse a foot of the county roads and state roads, and the imposition of this extraordinary tax, as in this bill that came into the Senate, increases the tax from eighty per cent. to two hundred and seventy per cent. As to the conditions that arose yesterday in conference, I accept the gentleman's statement as to the bill, but I have no words from those gentlemen who attended that meeting, nor from any other person of the city of Pittsburgh who opposed this bill, and have asked me to take up their contention on the floor of the Senate.

I further contend that if this legislation is passed it will not pass the scrutiny of the Supreme Court of the State of Pennsylvania. I further contend that the people that do not use highways should not be taxed on this question. If Pennsylvania is to protect its highways, it will be placed in the position of the reinstallation of toll gates for the trucks that make it their business to run in opposition to the express railroad trains. It comes to the place now if you are going to have business quit taxing it to death. If you are going to be progressive and want to do things with dispatch help them to continue it in the way that you are now doing. If we are to tax for additional revenue, as provided for in this bill, with the extraordinary amount of moneys that are now derived from the ordinary motor vehicles, including passenger cars, goes into the question of building our roads, and all other improvements and things that go into the matter of improvements, and then you add on top of that a tax for the question of business, that business that does not use your roads. Therefore, I appeal to the Senate to postpone final action on this bill until a further investigation is made into the bill as to its origin, as to its amendments, and to the conditions of this matter.

Mr. President, I, therefore, ask unanimous consent that this bill go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair desires to inform the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, that it is too late to have the bill go over in its order. A motion to postpone would be in order.

MOTION TO POSTPONE.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, therefore I move that further action on this bill be postponed for the present, for giving the Senators an opportunity to ascertain from their constituents whether this bill in its present form is satisfactory. We should have an opportunity to do that on account of the number of protests that came in against this bill.

Mr. McCLINTOCK. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, in answer to the Senator from Allegheny, I would like to state for the benefit of the Senator and for the benefit of the members of the Senate, that at the conference yesterday there was present a representative of the Pittsburgh Retail Merchants Association and he agreed to the bill. I would like to state further that I hold in my hand a copy of an advertisement that appeared all over the State of Pennsylvania, signed by the Pennsylvania Motor Federation, Robert P. Hooper, President, Paul C. Wolf, Secretary, Pittsburgh, James Barton Weeks, Chairman of the Good Roads Committee of Philadelphia, advocating the passage of this bill in its present form.

Mr. President, I hope that the motion to postpone this bill will not prevail. The session is nearing the end and if this important legislation is to be gotten through, it must be gotten through at an early date. I have noted what the Senator from Pittsburgh has said with reference to the whole proposition, and I am sure that the members of this Senate agree with this committee that there should be some reasonable increase in the license for motor trucks, particularly in view of the fact that the matter has had such careful consideration, and has been gone over so thoroughly by that Committee with the representatives of the different Motor Truck Interests from all over the State of Pennsylvania, all the way from Erie to Philadelphia even including Pittsburgh, and I hope, Mr. President, that this motion will not prevail.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I sincerely hope that this motion will not prevail. I think that there is not a man in the Senate, but what recognizes the fact that the trucks of Pennsylvania are doing a vast amount of damage to the public roads. I think it is further evident to everybody who has studied this situation that the license fees imposed in this measure are very moderate as compared with the license fees imposed in the States of New York and New Jersey, and other of our adjoining states. To postpone action of this bill at this time jeopardizes, in my judgment, the passage of the bill, because if the bill passes this body it will have to go back to the House for concurrence in the Senate amendments, and putting it over in twenty-four hours will probably compel the falling of the bill in its entirety. I too, had protests several days ago relative to this bill. I have letters from many of those who were protesting, saying that since they have understood the bill, since the license fees have been modified, that they are now in entire accord with the bill. I hope, therefore, that the motion to postpone will not pass, but that the passage of this bill may be effected to-day.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I want to ask the Senator form Bucks, Mr. Buckman, whether an amendment was inserted into this bill, exempting the motor street cleaners, street sprinklers or sweepers, whatever they are called, used exclusively to clean the streets of the city?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, does the Senator mean privately owned machines of that kind? No, sir, they are not. However, the bill does provide that motor vehicles owned by municipalities are exempt. I would say in answer to the Senator that privately owned motor vehicles of the kind described by him are not exempt, but that motor vehicles of that character owned by municipalities, by the state, or any other municipalities, are exempt.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, in view of that I favor the postponement of the bill, because the motor vehicles used exclusively in city streets, to sprinkle streets, to flush streets, or anything of that kind, whether owned by a municipality or by private street cleaning contractors, should be exempt, and I want to prepare an amendment for that purpose.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I can see no reason why privately owned sweepers or machinery of that character should be exempt from the provisions of this bill, any more than any other privately owned machine should be exempt. As I said we do not exempt all sorts of vehicles owned by municipalities and to pick out one class of machines because they are owned by contractors working on the streets of a municipality, in my judgment, would be an unwise and probably an unconstitutional provision.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Bucks, one more question.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN, Mr. President, I will.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, this bill originated in the House known as No. 367. I would like to ask the Senator if this bill, since it was amended in the Senate, has been referred back to the House to change its title?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, not to my knowledge.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, therefore I wish to inform the Senator that he should make this bill an equal bill and put it in position to pass the scrutiny of the Attorney General of the State of Pennsylvania and the courts of Pennsylvania. It will not pass that test.

And the question recurring

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was not agreed to.

And the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. EINSTEIN. Mr. President, I desire to say for the benefit of the Senate, that I have not had one message in favor of this bill. I have received fifty to sixty telegrams and letters protesting against this bill. I would like to see the bill defeated in its present form. I would be very glad if the bill would go over for the present to offer an amendment. I do not think it right to put such a tax on the trucks as there is in this bill. It practically affects everybody who has a truck and there is plenty of money being placed in the treasury of the State Highway Department to take care of the highways without a measure of this kind. Now, my friend, Senator Buckman, was very much in favor of passing this bill at this time, and I believe that he would be fair enough to let the bill go over in its order, in order to give us an opportunity to read the bill.

And the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1383, (House Bill No. 1279), entitled:

An Act to prevent the laying out opening changing vacating widening or altering by a court of quarter sessions of a road any part of which lies within a township of the first class without the consent and approval of the Board of Township Commissioners

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, this bill is "An act to prevent the laying out, opening, changing, vacating, widening, or altering by a court of quarter sessions a road any part of which lies within a township of the first class, without the consent and approval of the board of township commissioners."

Mr. President, and gentlemen of the Senate, the effect of the passage of this act would be to absolutely prevent the improvement of a road of, any part of which, it makes no difference how short a distance, might lie within a township of the first class. In other words, if a road ran through a half dozen different townships of the second class and entered, even for a mile in townships of the first class, the road might not be in any manner improved, widened, straightened, or anything else, unless they had the consent of the commissioners of the first class township, which might easily prevent the improvement of the road through the other townships. I think the bill should be defeated.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1383, (House Bill No. 1279), on third reading, entitled:

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1409, (House Bill No. 1384), entitled:

An Act to provide for the payment to Philadelphia county of moneys with interest thereon advanced for the payment of expenses incident to the conduct of primary elections in the said county of Philadelphia and making an appropriation therefor

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, ten years ago, way back in 1911 and 1912 the State disallowed the city of Philadelphia certain sums of money, which the city claimed were exorbitant, for printing ballots and conducting the elections in the city of Philadelphia. Those claims were disallowed by the Auditor-General, and they have ever since been so regarded. The State has hitherto refused to pay those bills. This act provides that now, at this late date, ten years after the occurrence, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania shall reverse itself, the official action, and the records of the State shall reimburse the City of Philadelphia, for those exorbitant charges in the sum of six hundred and six thousand, nine hundred and fifty-six dollars and six cents, and worse than that,—with interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum from that date. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, I say that a matter that has been adjusted and settled ten years ago should not now pass at this late date when we need money as badly as the State does, pass an act to resurrect an old matter to reimburse the city, and with interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum. I respectfully urge the Senate to defeat this measure.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, some ten years ago the state of Pennsylvania, entered into an obligation to pay, and whether it is ten years ago or now is immaterial, the county commissioners in Philadelphia, obligated themselves to pay under the law as established by this State. Then a controversy arose, and the City of Philadelphia was compelled to pay money that the State of Pennsylvania owed. Pennsylvania is a big state. Pennsylvania ought to pay its debts. This is the debt of the State of Pennsylvania owes Philadelphia and should pay it, and pay it now. It should have been paid ten years ago, and it is poor policy for any one to get on the floor in this Senate and say because you have had ten years credit you should never pay. Pennsylvania is too big an institution to owe anybody, especially the big City of Philadelphia.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I beg to differ with the Senator from Philadelphia. It was decided and determined at that time that the State of Pennsylvania did not owe this bill, and there is no law, there is no Act of Assembly, that obligated the State of Pennsylvania to pay this debt, and, as I say, it was at that time adjudicated by the proper officials of this Commonwealth that the Commonwealth did not owe the debt.

Mr. PATTON. Mr. President, I happened to be a member of the councils of the City of Philadelphia at the time that this debt was made and I want to say to this Senate that when the primary bill was passed Philadelphia paid her bill with the full promise in the primary election law that they should be reimbursed by the State of Pennsylvania. Autocratically the Auditor General refused to pay the bill, and it has been pending ever since. The City of Philadelphia had no right to go to the bat and sue the State of Pennsylvania. It was not adjudicated by anybody except the Auditor General, who refused to pay the bill. This money is due to the City of Philadelphia. It should have been paid long ago, and it was not paid and should be paid with interest. It was an honest debt due the City of Philadelphia by the State of Pennsylvania, contracted by the order of the State, and there is only one great body that ought to pay it and that is the State of Pennsylvania. The City of Philadelphia pays her tax to the state without a word, and they get nothing back from the road law. They have to pay everything out of their own clothes, and in this case I have never felt that the State of Pennsylvania was doing anything anywhere near right, when they refused to pay this just bill. I am very sorry to hear my friend from Lehigh county, make this charge against the City of Philadelphia, having known, as I did, the true reluctance with which we undertook to pay this money out, believing that we were going to be stopped somewhere, and I say to you that every dollar of this debt was paid by the City of Philadelphia at the behest of the State of Pennsylvania in her primary election law.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I would just like to say on behalf of the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee of the House and of this body, that that statement, made by my friend from Philadelphia, exactly corroborates the testimony that was brought before us relative to the payment of this indebtedness. We believe that the State of Pennsylvania honestly owed this debt, and that is why it passed in the Appropriation Committee. We believed that there might be some doubt about the interest end of it and we gave the City of Philadelphia the benefit of the doubt on the interest end, knowing that they were compelled to frequently float bond issues in order to keep themselves in funds for their operating expenses.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Patton.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Patton, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PATTON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Patton, how much the city did pay for this specific work?

Mr. PATTON. Mr. President, I do not know, I know that they did not pay all of it by a jugfull.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, but the State did pay this bill, that portion of the bill and this item that the State admitted it owed. Is that correct?

Mr. PATTON. Mr. President, the fact of the matter is simply this, that the State autocratically said "we will pay you so much" and we had to take it, we had no recourse and no remedy.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I just wanted to correct that impression that the State never paid anything for this work here, as the State at the time admitted itself to owe, and what they thought it was owing under the laws of the Commonwealth it paid, and this is an excess which the State thought it was not owing.

Mr. SISSON. Mr. President, I think, perhaps, I ought to say a word at this time, as I was the Auditor General that made this settlement, and I remember that we allowed all that we thought was fair compensation for the work done. The proper remedy, it seems to me, for Philadelphia, would have been to appeal from the settlement of the Auditor General and let the Court adjust the matter, whether sufficient amount was allowed by the Auditor General or not for the claim. But we thought we were doing right at the time.

Mr. PATTON. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Erie, Mr. Sisson.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Erie, Mr. Sisson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SISSON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. PATTON. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Erie whether this was a decision of the Auditor General, on whose decision the matter rested?

Mr. SISSON. Mr. President, no, you can appeal from the decision of the Auditor General.

Mr. PATTON. Mr. President, appeal to whom?

Mr. SISSON. Mr. President, to the courts of Dauphin county.

Mr. PATTON. Mr. President, we were told that we had no appeal, that we would have to take what they gave us or nothing.

Mr. SISSON. Mr. President, appeals are constantly being made from the decisions of the Auditor General.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I do not intend to take up the time of the Senate this morning, but this is an absolutely just bill. It is to take care of these expenses. The City of Philadelphia has paid them and there is no reason in the world why they should not reimburse the city.

An Act to repeal an act approved the ninth day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred and ninety-three) entitled "An act to amend an act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirteen entitled 'An act to prohibit the killing of foxes by certain methods in Delaware county and fixing a penalty for violation of the act' by extending the provisions of said act to Chester county and Montgomery county" so far as the same relates to Montgomery county

Mr. SMITH. Mr. President, I sceond the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1045, (House Bill No. 1128), entitled:

An Act to repeal an act approved the ninth day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred and ninety-three) entitled "An act to amend an act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirteen entitled 'An act to prohibit the killing of foxes by certain methods in Delaware county and fixing a penalty for violation of the act' by extending the provisions of said act to Chester county and Montgomery county" so far as the same relates to Montgomery county

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, and gentlemen of the Senate, the bill which we now have under consideration is an act to repeal an act passed in 1919, which act provided for the protection of foxes in Montgomery county, along with a couple of other counties in the neighborhood. This act is proposed to repeal that act insofar as it relates to Montgomery county only. It is therefore a Montgomery county bill. While I do not live in Montgomery county or represent that county, yet my county, the county of Bucks, has a very vital interest in the passage of this repealer for these reasons: The bill as originally passed, protecting foxes in Montgomery county, was passed in the interest of the fox hunting sport, with the result that foxes have increased very greatly in Montgomery county and have migrated over into Bucks county where they have become a great nuisance and have done a great deal of damage to the poultry and to the game of my county as well as the county of Montgomery. I have known of whole flocks of poultry being wiped out by these foxes. They have even been imported into Montgomery county from other states, with the result that the money which we have been expending for the propagation and preservation of game has been thrown away, for the reason that foxes are very destructive of game, as well as of poultry. Mr. President, as I say, this bill affects Bucks and Montgomery counties and I am going to ask the members of the Senate to pass it because the representatives in this body from Bucks and Montgomery county want it repealed. If you gentlemen from Erie, or from any other western part of the state, come down here with a bill which affects your county and your county only, we feel we should go along with you, and we ask you to do that in this case. Mr. President, I do not profess to be a fox-hunter, in fact I never have hunted foxes. I have nothing against the fox hunting sport, but the feeling has become so great in the district which I represent that there has been almost bloodshed. In fact there is a man now under indictment for attempting to shoot a man who was hunting foxes on the farm which he leased from that man, and he is under indictment. I understand he was in the employ of the fox-hunting club of Montgomery county who were in the habit of coming to Bucks county and chasing these foxes. Mr. President, I hope for the reasons that I have stated that the Senate will go along in the repeal of this measure for the relief of my county and the county of Montgomery and the protection of our game and our poultry.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Mr. JOYCE reported from the Committee on Appropriations, with a favorable recommendation, the following resolution:

In the Senate, April 25, 1921.

Whereas, During several sessions of the General Assembly merchants have petitioned for the repeal of the merchantile tax law: and

Whereas, Repeal of the said law has been sought for reasons including the following: That it is a class tax and thereby un-American; that its administration is inequitable; and that in the case of corporations it amounts to double taxation; and

Whereas, It is believed that merchants are willing to pay any honest taxation equitably laid and administered, and,

Whereas, Repeal of the said law is not advisable during the present session of the General Assembly, owing to unusual requirements upon the State for revenue, therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That the Governor shall appoint a commission of nine, consisting of three members of the Senate, three members of the House of Representatives and three citizens of the Commonwealth, to investigate the alleged inequalities of the merchantile tax law and its administration. The commission shall make a report with recommendations to the next general session of the General Assembly, including such drafts of legislation as it may deem necessary for the consideration of the General Assembly.
